Indiana Should Run Humorists Says Col. Rogers

(Special To The News)

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 5.—Indiana is noted for its great crop of humorists, George Ade, Kin Hubbard and a flock of others. Indianians jealous of these mens' reputations used to say, "We have people in Indiana besides humorists." And sure enough they did have, but they were all in jail but the humorists. So why don't they elect some of them. George Ade would redeem your state in national esteem. He is a graduate of Purdue, a university that can't beat Amherst doing anything. You would have to draft him the same as the Republicans will do with Coolidge. Abe Martin for Lt. Gov. in case Ade laughed himself to death when he saw the inside workings of the state. Yours for candidates that can win.

WILL ROGERS.

Another campaign that could be started with benefit to a lot of neighborhoods in New Castle, would be a juvenile campaign to see which gang of boys could play with the least noise. Many neighborhoods are annoyed daily by these lads because of the fact that they can't seem to play without accompanying their play with continuous shrieking and shouting This program gets most tiresome to the people of the locality.

Wilmington avenue is doing a comeback! It's again torn up in a number of places for excavating for service lines to new homes. We would like to know how many times this street has been torn up since it was paved some years ago. It may be necessary to resurface the street in the future in order to give a smooth approach to the new Jameson Memorial hospital.

Street department men did one little piece of work yesterday that is commendable. The depression in the paving at the top of the Jefferson street hill was repaired. This was a most noticeable bump in the street, and its elimination is a move that will be appreciated by motorists.

Work is in progress on the hangar at the airport being laid out on the Wilmington road, opposite the Field club entrance. The building is being rushed to completion and it will be but a few days until Kegarise's plane can be brought to its home field and be permanently located there. Approaches to the field from Wilmington road are being made, and the field is being generally improved.

More service stations are springing up along the roads outside the city limits. There was a time even years ago when it seemed that the point of saturation had been reached for service stations in this district, but it seems not to be the case. More and more stations are being started thruout the county.

Work on the erection of the structural steel construction for the nurses' home being erected in connection with the new Jameson Memorial hospital, is now under way. This home will be completed and ready for use when the new hospital is opened in the fall, it is anticipated.

Tomorrow is Good Friday. It is also the anniversary of United States' entry into the great world war.

Balmy spring evenings, like last night, are sure to bring out almost everyone without their coats and many without their hats. Roadsters have their tops down, sedan windows are thrown open to let in the spring. For, it is here at last. April showers and all.

Last evening there was quite a discussion about the "night air" and its effects on people who are foolish enough to go without their coats, et cetera. But Pa Newc believes, with many men of the medical profession, that somehow, there can be little difference except in temperature, between the night air and the air of any other time. It is an ancient bogey which has been exploded many years ago.

And this morning, doors of business

ESTIMATE DAMAGE AT HALF MILLION

Woman Is Killed As Home Is Demolished By High Wind; Boy Burns To Death

(International News Service)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 5—Four persons are dead and several hundred families homeless today as a result of storms and heavy rains over widespread areas in Arkansas, Kansas and Oklahoma last night, according to reports here.

Mrs. Joseph Campbell and Charles S. Lewis are dead at Shawnee, Okla., their bodies having been recovered from a devastated area along the Canadian river in that city, where seven inches of rain last night sent the Canadian river on a rampage.

Mrs. Anna Green, 25, Topeka, Kan., died from injuries suffered when a high wind demolished her suburban home, and a 12-year-old boy was burned to death near Lincoln, Ark., when mountain forest fires spread over a wide area, fanned by high winds.

Torrential Rain

Shawnee, Okla., on the Canadian river, reported a torrential rain of cloudburst proportions and nearly 1,000 persons were driven from their homes along the river.

Nearly $205,000 damage has resulted from the strong winds which struck southern Kansas and Oklahoma oil fields near Wichita, Kan.

Several rivers in southwestern Kansas and northern Oklahoma are swollen out of banks.

Damage throughout the whole area is expected to reach half a million dollars.

Small Girl Is Struck By Auto

Harlansburg Scene Of Accident; Betty Stinedurf, Five, In Hospital

TOLEDO WOMAN IS DRIVER OF CAR

Little Betty Stinedurf, aged 5, of Harlansburg, is in the Shenango Valley hospital, in an unconscious and apparently seriously injured condition, as a result of being struck by the automobile driven by Mrs. Roy Seyfried, 827 Woodruff avenue, Toledo, Ohio, in front of her home this morning. The little girl had just crossed the road to the mail box and was in the act of returning to the other side of the road, when the machine struck and knocked her to the roadway.

Immediately following the accident, the little girl was rushed in the Seyfried car to the Shenango Valley hospital, where this afternoon, she was reported to be still in the same unconscious condition that she was in, on being brought to that institution.

It will probably be necessary to take an X-ray picture of the head to determine the exact cause of her condition, which may be the result of a fracture of the skull. This will not be definitely known until such a picture is taken.

The accident occured some time between ten and eleven o'clock this morning. The little girl had crossed the roadway in safety to the mail box and had started back to the other side on which her home was located, when the Toledo car struck her. Just how she came to get in the way of the car has not been definitely determined.

In being knocked to the roadway, her head was injured in some manner. The Seyfried car was enroute toward this city when the accident occured.

CHICAGO, April 5.—With the United States government's announced policy of "hands off" in Chicago's volcanic political situation, grave concern was expressed today for the orderly conduct of the primary election next Tuesday.

United States Marshal, Palmer Anderson, had asked permission to swear in 500 deputy marshals to assist local authorities in guarding the polls. This was refused in an official communication from Attorney General Sargent at Washington.

Simultaneously police commissioner Michael Hughes announced it would be impossible to station police officers at all polling places. He pointed out that he has only 4,000 men, 1,700 of whom are assigned to traffic and other special duties.

SEWARD, Alaska, April 5.—The United States army wireless station here today waited for signals from the plane in which Captain George H. Wilkins, famous explorer, will attempt to fly across the top of the world from Point Barrow to Spitzbergen.

A message from Wilkins stated that he may hop today on his North Polar expedition, if the weather permits. The explorer and his Pilot, Carl Eielson, have been waiting for moderation of the fierce arctic storms at Point Barrow.

Because of the small size of the Radio sending apparatus aboard the Wilkins plane, it was pointed out, the government station will be able to pick up messages only under the most favorable atmospheric conditions.

Mellon's Program In Tax Reduction Opposed In House

SENATE COMMITTEE DRAFTS NEW BILL

Movement Inaugurated To Harmonize Differences In Both Branches Of Congress

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Tax reduction was again thrown into a doubtful state of confusion today when house fiscal leaders declared that the house will turn down the Mellon program, even though the senate approves it.

The prospect of a disagreement between the two houses preventing any tax reduction caused administration leaders to inaugurate a movement to harmonize the differences.

While the house leaders were turning thumbs down upon Secretary Mellon's plan, Republicans on the senate finance committee were engaged in drafting a bill to meet the treasury's $201,000,000 limitation.

Rep. Willis C. Hawley (R) of Oregon, new chairman of the house ways and means committee and a consistent administration supporter, declared that there was little hope of the house taking the Mellon program.

Doubtful Sentiment.

"From the sentiment of both the committee on ways and means and the house it seems doubtful if the house will agree to have no reduction on the automobile tax, nor will they agree to the repeal of the estate tax or modification of the intermediate brackets of the individual income tax as suggested by Mr. Mellon," said Hawley.

Hawley said that his opinion was based upon the legislative situation and did not necessarily reflect his own

Bunion Derbyists Dig Into Soil Of Texas Panhandle Today

WILL STOP TONIGHT AT AMARILLO, TEXAS

By LELAND C. LEWIS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

AMARILLO, Texas, April 5. — C. C. ("Cross Country") Pyle's 91 bunion derbyists dug their toes deep into the soil of the Texas Panhandle today as they scampered toward Amarillo, their thirty-third control 35 miles from Vega.

Arne Suominen, Detroit naprapath, leader in the race with an elapsed time of 189:45:10 for the 1152 miles from Los Angeles, had an edge of 5 hours, 15 minutes, 32 seconds over Andrew Payne, youthful Oklahomian. Payne's margin over Peter Gavuzzi, Southampton, England, was cut to 1 hour, 53 minutes, 59 seconds, when the latter traversed the 37.3 miles from Glenrio, N. M., to Vega, Texas, in 5:14:10.

Olli Wanttinen, 96-pound New York Finn, continued to forge ahead, finishing but 20 seconds behind Gavuzzi and thus bolstering his race position.

Harry Abramovitz, New York, who holds fifteenth place in the elapsed standings, finished tenth on the Glenrio-Vega lap in 6:33:30, elapsed time 239:53:15.

Abramovitz is apparently as sound as a dollar.

The next stop after Amarillo will be Groom, Friday, McClean, Saturday; Texola on Texas-Oklahoma boundary, Sunday; Sayre, Oklahoma, Monday; Clinton, Tuesday; Geary, Wednesday; El Reno, Thursday; Oklahoma City, Friday.

Neither Earl Dilks of New Castle, Penna., nor Paul Simpson of Burlington, N. C., had checked in up to the time this dispatch was filed. Both had been out twelve hours.

COURT HOUSE TO BE CLOSED FRIDAY

In order that the Court House officials and employees may properly observe Good Friday, the Court House will be closed all day tomorrow. No business will be transacted in any of the offices, according to information given out by officials this morning.

Blame Firebug For Big Blazes At Ocean City

Second Big Fire Along Boardwalk Occurs During Morning

LETTER THREATS ARE SENT TO OFFICIALS

Loss On Blaze Today Is Estimated At About $200,000

(International News Service)

OCEAN CITY, N. J., April 5.—The torch of a pyromaniac is believed to have been responsible for this resort's second disastrous fire along the boardwalk here within the past five months which early today consumed two buildings and partially destroyed another, causing damage estimated at $200,000.

The Doughty and the Johnson buildings were destroyed while the Gardiner building was badly damaged as the flames raced along the boardwalk.

Fear gripped residents as police announced discovery of oil-soaked excelsior and other inflammable refuse at the scene of the fire. The blaze today was one block north of the supposed incendiary blaze which wiped out eight blocks last October, causing nearly $3,000,000 loss.

Mayor Champion and the city tax collector recently received letters in which the writer declared the "rest of the town" would be burned if the mercantile tax was passed by the city commissioners. City and police officials, however, scoff at the reference to the city tax and expressed the belief that the "firebug" is a "crank" who delights in seeing fires.

The flames today were discovered simultaneously under a Japanese casino and in the Doughty building. An explosion shook buildings within several blocks.

A number of apartment houses were damaged by water and smoke and several occupants were rescued by firemen before the blaze was brought under control.

Double Tragedy In New York Apartment Is Discovered Today

Man Tires Of Another Man's Wife And Kills Her, Then Commits Suicide

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 5.—Tiring of another man's wife, Harry Angelo killed her and then took his own life, police said today. The bodies of Angelo and the woman, Mrs. Ida Schnier, were found in Angelo's apartment last night, but medical examiners said the shooting probably had occurred Saturday or Sunday.

Harry Schnier, the woman's husband, had been looking for her since last Friday. Breaking into Angelo's apartment with the aid of detectives, he found the bodies and the following taunting note, addressed to him by Angelo:

"You have been a fool. I want to get rid of your wife. Take her back. My wife is coming home any day."

Neighbors told police Mrs. Angelo left home a year ago to care for a paralytic sister in Stamford, Conn.

Angelo was forty years old. Mrs. Schnier was thirty and a mother.

Accuse Former Woman Secretary Of State With Grand Larceny And Forgery

(International News Service)

ALBANY, N. Y., April 5.—With an important witness missing, criminal prosecution of Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state, for alleged forgery, grand larceny and other felonies in her administration of the $1,200,000 1925 census fund, got under way today before a special Albany county grand jury.

All efforts to locate Miss Elizabeth Egan, of Syracuse, an assistant secretary of the Onondaga County Republican organization have failed, subpoena servers told George Medalie, special deputy attorney general who is in charge of the prosecution of the Knapp case. Miss Egan was to have been one of the witnesses before the grand jury today.

Miss Egan served as an assistant census supervisor, according to testimony given at last fall's Moreland investigation of Mrs. Knapp's handling of the census funds.

On Monday, Miss Egan was called on the telephone by the attorney general's office and told that she was wanted as a grand jury witness.

Verdict Is Set Aside In Opinion By Judge Chambers

City Wins Decision In Cases Brought By Mary And Nick Thomas

In the case of Mary E. Thomas and Nick Thomas against the city of New Castle, Judge Chambers handed down an opinion today in which motion of the city for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is granted.

The case was one in which suit was brought against the city for injuries received by Mrs. Thomas when she fell on the icy sidewalk near the Leslie house on December 30, 1925, and was severely injured. In her suit against the city she alleged negligence on the part of the municipality in not keeping the street free from ice.

The jury awarded Mary Thomas $500 and Nick Thomas, her husband, $700 for loss of his wife's services and expenses during the time she was confined to the house. The court opinion rendered sets aside these verdicts.

In discussing the case the court calls attention to the fact that it was not shown in the testimony that there were any ridges on the sidewalk. The sidewalk was slippery, but it was a condition which had prevailed for a week before the accident, and was one in which pedestrians had to take into account when travelling the streets.

It was also claimed in the trial of the case that the sidewalk was not level but dipped. The court holds that this was not an unreasonable dip but such as would take care of the drainage in a proper manner.

Mr. Depew suffered a slight chill upon his return from St. Petersburg, Fla., last week and was confined to his home with a cold. Late yesterday his physicians announced that his condition had taken a turn for the worse, but stated that his general condition was not alarming.

Despite the reassurance of the doctors, Mr. Depew's entire family was called to the home. The relatives at the bedside were Mrs. Depew, a son, Chauncey M. Depew Jr., a niece, Miss Anne Depew Paulding, and a nephew, Chauncey Depew Steele, of Briarcliff Manor, N. Y.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Saverio Masconi of Woodlawn, will soon be reunited with their son, Francesco, who remained in Italy, when his parents sailed for the United States to make their home here.

The bureau of immigration, department of labor, has just handed down a ruling giving the son non-quota status which will enable him to sail for this country in the near future. The request for the ruling was made by Congressman J. Howard Swick of Beaver Falls, to whom the father appealed for aid.

The Masconi's are a well known family in Woodlawn and recently Mr. Masconi was granted his final United States citizenship papers. They left Italy several years when their son was a small child. The son is now 17 years of age and they have not seen him for several years.

view as to the proper method of tax reduction.

Rep. Garner (D) of Texas, minority leader on the ways and means committee, also declared that the house will not accept Mellon's proposed plan of tax reduction.

There appeared to be a better possibility of an agreement upon the $201,000,000 limit set by the treasury. Hawley expressed belief that the $289,000,000 tax bill which the house passed early in the session would have to be cut to the Mellon figure. Garner said that he is "not concerned with the amount so much as the items to be cut."

Progress was made by the Republican finance committee, headed by Sen. Smoot (R) of Utah, in agreeing to the Mellon proposal for a cut in the corporation tax rate of 13½ to 12 per cent. This would cut revenues $123,000,000. The house previously proposed a cut to 11½ per cent.

Many persons in Chicago, especially women, are actually afraid to go to the polls. It is believed in some quarters that the government's announcement not to help in maintaining order at the polls will seriously restrict the voting.

Steadfastly maintaining his innocence, young Knowlton, who came here from Cambridge by automobile, was returned to that city.

Historic Monument Square, in the path of the famous battle of Concord, was filled with automobiles by curious persons who watched the young man enter the courthouse with state, Concord and Framingham police. There was a terrific jam at the courthouse doors as the weary young man was led into the prisoner's dock. When all spectators' seats in the courtroom were filled the doors were locked.

After the arraignment young Knowlton was taken to the local lockup to await the trip by automobile back to Cambridge. Women as well as men were numbered among those who sought to catch a glimpse of the accused young business man.

CHAUNCEY DEPEW, VETERAN ORATOR, STATESMAN, DEAD

considered a serious illness for a man of Mr. Depew's age, physicians in attendance were confident almost until the end that he would recover, and the suddenness of his death came as something of a shock. He partook of some light nourishment yesterday and last night his temperature dropped from 104 to 102, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians.

Formal announcement of Mr. Depew's death was made by his physicians, Dr. Samuel W. Lamdert and Dr. H. Lyman Hooker, at the Depew home, 27 West 54th street. Only yesterday morning they had announced that their noted patient was suffering from nothing worse than a cold and that there was no cause for alarm.

Nearly 94 Years Old

Mr. Depew was still active this year as the head of the New York Central's board of directors. He had planned to attend the Republican national convention in Kansas City on June 12. The Cleveland convenconvention of 1924 was the first he had missed since 1888.

Mr. Depew had made plans for an informal birthday celebration on April 23. On that date he would have been 94 years old.

Upon each of his birthdays in recent years Mr. Depew had received newspaper reporters at his office for interviews. Upon these occasions he would reveal his philosophy on politics, business, art, the "younger generation" and every subject upon which the eager reporters questioned him.

These interviews were liberally spiced by Mr. Depew's humor. He was one of the most entertaining after-dinner speakers in the country, and demands for his presence as toastmaster at banquets were unceasing.

Gifted As Orator

Gifted as an orator, Depew became a prominent public figure early in life.

Before he was 30 he served as a member of the state assembly of New York and as Secretary of State.

In 1872, when he was 38 years of age, he ran for lieutenant-governor on the liberal Republican ticket, but was defeated. A few years before he had been confirmed United States minister to Japan, but had declined the appointment.

He then became counsel for the New York Central railroad. His ability in railroad affairs won him a high place in the world of transportation. He became president of the New York Central in 1882 and held offices and directorships on many other roads.

He was president of the road until 1898, and from then on was chairman of the board of directors. He was also president of the West Shore railroad.

Declined Senatorship

Individualized Style in Foot Saver Shoes

—and slenderized ankles

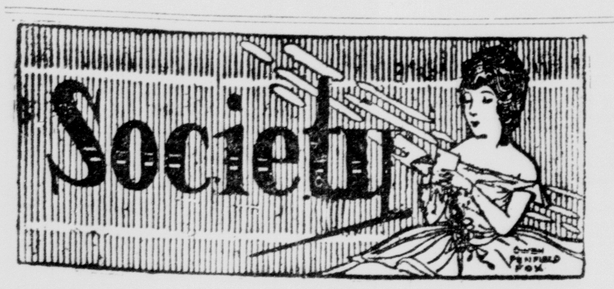

FOOT SAVER SHOES are not content to be merely in the fashion. They give in every model an individual interpretation of the mode... They are not satisfied to make a woman's feet seem dainty. They make her ankles young and slim as well... They do not merely go on easily. Their patented construction makes them fit perfectly... And they are not just comfortable, for their utter ease, their complete release from fatigue and strain, are luxuries that only those who know can appreciate... The new Foot Saver Models we are now showing tell the story irresistibly.

AND STILL WE WONDER AT MURDER

A DISPATCH from Ohio announces that the state has lost its first move to set aside the decision of the Third District Court of Appeals by which George Remus, former bootleg leader and wife slayer, was ordered released from the State Hospital for the Insane. Remus, it will be recalled, was acquitted of killing his wife on the ground of insanity. Insane yesterday and sane today—a sort of legal hocus-pocus. The prosecution will continue the fight to keep him confined.

Over in New York, where a woman shot her husband, able lawyers are looking after "her interests." It is announced by counsel for the defense that her friends are "rallying around her splendidly." The interest there, as in the Ohio case, is with the defendant.

The "rights" of the criminals are zealously protected. But we hear very little about the victims. And still we wonder at murder in this country!

BOOSTERS GO IN FOR YELLS

LIFE will not be more peaceful when a booster for a seashore resort has had his reckless way with it. He is about to offer a prize for the "best yell or municipal cry to musical accompaniment."

The scream of an outraged visitor who considers that he has been overcharged at his hotel would be one way of arriving at this curious addition to local customs, but presumably in most cases that would be neither loud nor long enough to satisfy the author of the idea.

But it may be taken as certain that if one watering place discovers a satisfactory yell, and it proves—to some people—an attraction, other cities and resorts will not be long in adding to the clamor.

And then the United States will ring from one end to the other with the Raleigh Roar, the Baltimore Bloat, the Seattle Screech, the Hollywood Hoot, the Atlantic City Cry, the Easton Echo, the Miami Moan, the Philadelphia Fury and many others from the Albany Agony down to the Zion Zeal.

There are some "boosts" that do not boost. The "community cry" is one of them. It is not unlikely that vacationists seeking peace and quiet will pass by even the winner of the national municipal yell contest and betake themselves to the Sahara Silence.

UNDERNOURISHED CHILDREN

A SURVEY of school children in a city with a pretty good health record, on the whole, shows a serious situation among the children. More than two-thirds of them are found suffering from physical defects.

The worst phase of it, because it is the most fundamental and least excusable, is undernourished. This is not due to poverty. The children of the well-to-do are found no better nourished than children of the poor.

It comes from a choice of the wrong foods. That means nothing but parental ignorance or carelessness. Even in "the better residence districts" children are found making their breakfast on toast and coffee.

NOT A JOB FOR THE STATES

THE Interstate Commerce Commission has vast powers, which are not always used wisely. Railroads fought the creation of the commission and often resent its acts. From time to time changes are suggested that would take away some of its powers.

Recently a United States senator suggested that the commission be divided into regional boards. It also has been proposed that some of the powers of the commission be restored to the states.

But it seems the railroads have experienced a change of heart. They now show a willingness to bear the ills they have rather than turn back to others they remember all too well. They may dislike federal regulation but they like state regulation even less.

The railroads will be the last to urge a return to the old method of state control. Some of the fanciest "railroad baiting" ever done was the work of state legislatures and commissions.

Spokesmen for the railroads are rather well agreed that they are entirely willing to leave well enough alone. The railroads remember the "good old days," without any present yearnings to return to them.

While federal regulation is far from a state of perfection, it has abolished the confusion which resulted from the enforcement of different railroad legislation in every state traversed by interstate railroads, and it has taken the railroads out of state politics to the betterment of politics.

Washington, in recent years, has usurped many powers which should be returned to the individual states, but railroad regulation is not one of them.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:29. Sun rises tomorrow 5:38.

Smile.

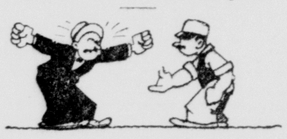

A raw deal cooked up is still that.

There are people who think they have real troubles and then there are the people who try to get their household goods fitted into the place they moved into April 1st.

Our good friend, John Mead, owner of the Erie Times, will celebrate his fortieth birthday as a newspaper man on April 12th. John has a wonderful newspaper in Erie and has been a hard worker in the game all the time he has been in it. We hope he not only gets through the coming anniversary in good shape but will also enjoy many more of them.

Times are never so dull that men do not want for excuses to escape serving on juries. Of course when men are in a position where others will suffer if they are away from their work, their excuse is good. However, men should serve on juries when they are called as it is a duty every American should be anxious to fulfill.

It may hurt dad worse than it hurts his sons, but not in the same place.

It's an age of easy credit, and the only thing you can't get on time is the repair job the garage man promised you at two o'clock.

Somewhere we saw a sign in an eating factory which read something like the following: "Do not abuse your wife because she cannot cook. Eat here and keep your wife for a pet."

When a fellow says: "I wish I could get that out of my head," he may be trying to make room for something else.

When we see the condition of some of the dirt streets in New Castle just now in all their deep muddy glory, we wonder why those who live on them do not start a riot in order to have them paved this summer. Mud sure is a most terrible thing anywhere it is found.

A girl has to be old enough to discover she has pretty legs before she aspires for the "Follies" or to be a circus acrobat.

A Chicago specialist says 23 out of 25 girls flaunt ugly legs. This bird claims to be a beauty specialist at that. It will be hard to make most people believe that.

When a girl catches a new fellow who always smells like onions, she is greatly peeved, probably not realizing that a girl these days has to be mighty nice looking to catch one who smells like violets.

A Pittsburgh man left a request that right after his funeral a banquet should be held. While such a request is unusual, nothing seems to be wrong with the idea.

Well, anyway, fellows, the girl who likes to be petted prefers an admirer who can't play the uke.

In Los Angeles the city council instructed the city attorney to prepare a drastic ordinance to curb boys and girls under 18 from smoking. The new law provides arrest for all who smoke cigs in the city streets, parks or school grounds. No reason is given for this move by the city of Los Angeles.

These new fangled beauty parlor rolling machines may not take a woman's hips off, but they certainly spread 'em around.

During February, traffic police on the highways of this state made 717 arrests and the fines for same amount to $9,902. If the state police were in it for money, enough could be collected by the state police to pave every secondary road in the state.

How The Women Sputtered!

The congregation of a Long Island church read this announcement in the weekly bulletin a recent Sunday:

"The ladies of this church have cast off clothing of all kinds. They may be seen in the basement of the church any afternoon this week."

Just one little hyphen missing but see how it made the notice read.

A dusky son of Alabama was busily engaged in a cootie hunt. When asked by the sergeant what he was doing, he replied:

A newspaper man has been appointed a United States senator by the governor of Michigan to take the place of a senator who has died. In some states they treat newspaper men most kindly.

A death occurred in Pittsburgh a few days ago which affected us greatly. It was our friend of over 40 years, Joseph H. McCaughtry. It was he who furnished The News with white print paper for over a quarter of a century, and he took a lot of pride in seeing this newspaper grow from a struggling little four-page sheet to what it is today. His kindly advice was followed by us many a time, and if our credit had not been good with him many a time The News would still be a struggling sheet or would have gone the way of many another newspaper venture in New Castle. His death gives us a genuine pang of grief.

In a few years the same girls who go down to the station in some places to see the traveling men come in will be going down to the airport to see if any fly gentlemen are alighting.

Senator Willis, who died a few days ago in Ohio, was a man who had all his life been most active in public affairs, and just at the time when he was on the way to realize his ambition he dropped dead. Such things make a lot of strenuous busy men stop and think, especially when they get along about 60 years of age. Senator Willis was a good man and a real American. It was our pleasure to know him slightly.

Once upon a time when you saw a girl "mortified to death" it was perfectly natural, but nowadays it's a case for the coroner.

One of the big problems for any of the people who spend the winter in the South is to get reservations back North. When the visitors there start back they all seem to want to go at the same time, and no upper berth is sneezed at on the trains coming North.

The housecleaning fever is in the air in spite of the fact that there has been no good weather yet. Some women start the work earlier every year. Woman's Sense of Humor.

Ingenious ladies, controlling the D. A. R., blacklist some members, not allowing them to address D. A. R. meetings, because the blacklisted are "too radical."

Don't those ladies know what the letters D. A. R. stand for? They mean "Daughters of the American Revolution."

It was a real revolution, A REBELLION AGAINST ESTABLISHED GOVERNMENT, as it then existed.

Women are alleged to lack a sense of humor. That isn't true, generally speaking, but it must be true of those blacklisting D. A. R. ladies.

This is "Matzoth Day," Jewish holiday of the Passover. The Jews hastily departed from their bondage in Egypt, eating unleavened bread, according to Jehovah's orders, 3,000 years ago. As Moses approached with his followers, the Red Sea opened, spread its waters apart, making a lane through which the Jews passed dry-shod, then swallowed up the pursuing hosts of the Egyptian Pharoah. The Egyptians do NOT celebrate this day.

By the way, the trip on which Moses spent 40 wandering years is made by airplane now in three hours. That really would surprise old Pharoah.

Many friends will hear with regret of Chauncey Depew's serious illness in his ninety-fourth year.

The aged railroad man, Senator, and Speaker, has given pleasure to many, and never willingly offended any one.

His advice to this writer many years ago was: "never depend on any rich man. If you are not useful he will drop you. If you are useful he will see to it that you never get rich, that he may hand you on to work for his son."

Depew knew what he was talking about.

The situation may force President Coolidge, in spite of himself, to change his "I do not choose" to "I guess I'll hafta."

Newspapers discover "some talk of Dawes for President." It isn't much of a discovery. Many of the most influential men have been for Gen. Dawes from the start. He is pledged to Gov. Lowden at present. But some wise politicians believe that in the end Dawes will be nominated, with Gov. Lowden's votes included in his majority.

Gen. Dawes possesses energy and action. If elected he would clean up rapidly anything that might be left of the oil scandal.

Situations change as rapidly as pictures in a kaleidescope. Nobody knows now who will run or not run; not even President Coolidge himself knows.

John D. Rockefeller, 80 years old, started north from Florida yesterday. His drive has been lengthened to 150 yards by a new style of addressing the ball. His health is good, and with his son, John D., Jr., carrying the load he is cheerful.

Railroad stocks were going up Tuesday. Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, well managed road, showed gains. Also New York Central and others. Atchison went on a permanent $10 dividend basis.

WAR TALK

A German leader, Dr. Paul Oestreich, declares that America and England will certainly be driven into war. They will both woo Germany for an ally, and in this way Germany will rise in the council of nations.

We have had among our own people men who predict that war is certain. They say that human nature cannot be changed and that war is inevitably due to ensue.

Lloyd George says: "In every country it is part of the business of the fighting staff to work out a plan for defense against all conceivable enemies. They gloat over their efficiency and, like every inventor, yearn to put their machine to a test, until possible war soon becomes likely and a likely war gradually glides into the inevitable."

From time immemorial nations and tribes have sought to "protect" themselves by increasing their armaments. A considerable portion of the press is urging the United States greatly to increase armament on sea and land in order to "protect" itself.

There never was a nation that could so protect itself. Greece tried it, and Rome and Spain and Germany and Russia, and they all fell.

The best protection for a nation is for it to form some kind of combination with other nations which public sentiment will endorse that shall abolish war as a final arbiter.

The most hopeful sign today is that people are finding out that war not only costs them money and valuable lives, but destroys property and sets back business.

It would be a good thing if every boy and girl in the country were compelled to serve two years under the tutelage of army officers in constructing great public works, such as the Boulder Dam and the Mississippi Reclamation projects.

There is no objection to universal conscription if it is universal, and if it is not primarily for the purpose of fighting. These boys and girls would be potential soldiers in case we were ever attacked, but their employment upon constructive works would not be in the nature of a provocation of war to other nations.

Some way or other we must give up our arms and defer questions of international dispute to some other arbiter than crass nationalism.

One hopeful sign is that plans of peace are openly discussed in international councils. The late Pan-American Congress was full of peace talk.

And peace-talking brings peace, just as war talk brings war. The question after all is one of public opinion and the sooner that public opinion is turned away from causes of war and toward the efforts of peace the better will be our prospects.

COWBOY STUFF

G. P. Putnam's Sons have just published a book of Poems entitled "Cowboy Stuff" by F. W. Lafrentz, Litt. D., former President and now Chairman of the Board of the American Surety Company. Men of the busy world of Commerce and Finance may be surprised to know that one of their number is a Poet entitled to rank with Harte, Service and the rest of those who have written of the Frontiersmen of America. Those who have been the intimates of Mr. Lafrentz will also be surprised to know that the Poet, Financier and Doctor of Literature was a member of the Territorial Legislature of Wyoming in 1880, the year of the publication of his first book of Poems printed on the then very frontier, at Cheyenne.

But Mr. Lefrentz was not merely an observer during those days. He drafted the petition which admitted Wyoming to the Union as a State. After he had come to represent English and Scottish financial interests as well as those of western ranchers and even after he personally had acquired important holdings he lived on horseback the ranch life of the period.

When later he came East he built one of the first sky scrapers in New York, the present home of the American Surety Company, an illustration of which was used in Webster's dictionary to illustrate the term "skyscraper." Nor has he relinquished his interest in the horse since for many years he has been President of the Brooklyn Riding and Driving Club. His interest also in the Hill Folk of another passing Frontier in the Cumberland Mountains is manifest. It is for them he has published "Cowboy Stuff," as John Wesley Hill, chancellor of the Lincoln Memorial University in Cumberland Gap, Tenn., explains in the introduction to the book. Mr. Lefrentz as a trustee of that industrial university which Abraham Lincoln conceived and suggested to General O. O. Howard is devoting the proceeds of this edition of cowboy poems to the education of the Hill Folk of the Cumberland Mountains through his gift of all profits to the institution.

The volume is illustrated by Henry Ziegler, member of an old Texas Ranch family and sportsman as well as artist. The artist, eighteen months of whose work is represented in "Cowboy Stuff" has been noted as a pistol and rifle shot since boyhood. He was second with the pistol and fourth with the rifle in the national competitons of 1907, and represented the Oklahoma rifle and pistol team at the annual Camp Perry competitions. So neither artist nor poet is a stranger to the land and the people they have so cleverly portrayed.

Editions of the volume are handsome. They must approach if they do not establish an American record sales price. Ten copies, illustrated with original dry point etchings pasted in, sold for $5,000 each; ten others for $1,000 each; and 30 with one original etching for $200 each. The entire issue including the already over-subscribed more expensive editions is limited to 500 copies, 450 of which with copper plate reproductions of the original etchings are being sold for $100

TRUST

If you are not trusted you are not happy. Nothing will make a man more enduringly miserable than the knowledge that those intimately associated with him do not trust him. Most men have within themselves the capacity for making other men have faith in them—if they will exercise that capacity. Often the temptation to disregard an obligation or to take a "short cut" which is not quite honest is very great—so great that many of us at times give way to it. That brings about lack of trust on the part of others—and thereby we enter into a life of discontent and unhappiness.

C. B. D. CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

"The Bridge of San Luis Rey," by Thornten Wilder, is a work of art. I believe the writer will do better in future books, but this is a remarkably beautiful piece of work.

Perhaps you have read it. Many thousands have. So I shall not try to outline its story. But it is about a bridge that collapsed, killing five persons. Each of the five is pictured as a character, a personality, filling a certain place in the world and leaving that place vacant when the bridge broke. Their friends and relatives who remained mourned their passing, and these five deaths made a great difference to a few other persons in a remote part of the world of men.

Mr. Wilder appends a moral to his book, almost in the fashion of the old writers of fables and mysteries. He puts his moral into the mouth or mind of one of those whose dear friends went down with the bridge. She says to herself that only a few now remember those who were killed. After a few years, the memory of them has been lost, except in a few hearts.

"But soon we shall die and all memory of those five will have left the earth, and we ourselves shall be loved for a while and forgotten. But the love will have been enough; all those impulses of love return to the love that made them. Even memory is not necessary for love. There is a land of the living and a land of the dead and the bridge is love, the only survival, the only meaning."

The author has touched upon one of the sweet and poignant truths of life. When we have passed on, we shall survive here only in the hearts of those who have loved us. When they in turn have gone away, our survival on earth will have ceased. And yet that is not sad. It is quite enough for the earth-life, and it is altogether just and beautiful that it should be so. As we have loved and been loved, so shall we live. I could not appreciate a laurel wreath, formally placed upon my tomb five centuries hence. But a quiet and peaceful sigh or smile, all in the dark, coming from the innermost soul of one who has loved me in life—that would be something of immortality.

The bridge is love and we build day by day, as we live. That is the truth, and it is worth putting into many good books.

United States Will Conduct Independent Fight Against Drugs

League Of Nations Rebuked By United States In Latest Action On Drug Warfare

Kellogg Impatient With Many Delays By Powers Causes New Sensation

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 5. — The United States emphatically rebuked the League of Nations today in formally announcing an independent program for international action to curb traffic in opium and other narcotics.

Coming on the eve of the eleventh session of the League's advisory committee on opium, Secretary of State a sensational step in the world war against dangerous drugs.

Impatient with the repeated failure of the League committee to bring about effective reform in opium production and distribution, Kellogg has initiated negotiations through regular diplomatic channels for direct action in suppressing the outlaw trade.

Kellogg's program was outlined today in a letter to Senator Smoot (R) of Utah, chairman of the senate finance committee. It reaffirms American allegiance to the aims of The Hague opium convention of 1912 and chides the League committee for its repeated failure to approve a drastic program consonant with that declaration of intent.

Recalling that the League committee sessions at Geneva in 1924 and 1925 took no effective steps toward realization of The Hague aims, Kellogg declared that, largely as a matter of self-defense against smuggling operations, the United States has undertaken to set up a world-wide system of co-operative espionage against illicit drug shipments.

Initiated In December

The movement was secretly initiated last December. Agreements already have been concluded with Great Britain, France and Germany, and the question is under negotiation with fourteen other nations, including Japan, Turkey, Belgium, Switzerland and Yugo-Slavia.

The League advisory committee is to meet at Geneva on April 12. John K. Caldwell, Far Eastern expert of the State Department and S. Pinkney Tuck, American Consul at Geneva, will attend only as unofficial observers. They will take no real part in the deliberations.

Kellogg interprets The Hague aims to be that use of coca derivatives shall be rigidly restricted to medical and scientific purposes. All other uses must be branded in international law as illegitimate. He recalled that the American delegation to the 1925 Geneva conference withdrew because it was "forced to the conclusion" that the project there being framed did not conform to this ideal.

In order to prevent the abuse of these products, it is necessary to exercise control over the production of raw opium in such a manner that there will be no surplus available for non-medical and non-scientific purposes."

Kellogg's new undertaking is to arrange for the "direct exchange of information" between world capitals "relating to persons and organizations engaged in the illicit international traffic." Such exchanges would be between the various existing organizations set up for the control of the domestic traffic.

The move is inspired by increasing evidence of growing smuggling operations to the United States, as detected by Treasury officials in the enforcement of the Harrison Anti-Narcotic Act.

LOOKING BACKWARD

There are few of us who, in our sentimental moments, do not think we would like to have time turn backward in its flight and make us boys and girls once again. Eugene Field carrying with him the spirit of youth to the day of his death, wrote:

"I'd like to sleep when I used to sleep
When I was a boy—a little boy."

We forget that when we were children we were not quite so happy as we think we were. The sorrows of childhood are exceedingly real. The worries and anxieties of boyhood and girlhood were as unescapable and devastating as they are today. Looking backward, life seems like a long summer afternoon in those golden days. But it wasn't. With conscience clear and mind at rest with the consciousness of work done as well as we know how, the chance for happiness today is as good for any of us as it was in childhood.

AGE

Age is the happiest period of all. Age when it follows a decently spent life, is freer from worries and anxieties than any other period. The fires of ambition no longer consume us. The fading of illusions need not mean loss of faith, and cynicism. Rather, age may bring merely a clearer, more honest acceptance of the facts of life. And that is always the way to peace of mind.

Do not fear age. Look forward to it with comfort.

Just Folks

IF YOUTH HAD BEEN WILLING TO LISTEN

If you had been willing to listen
To all that its grandfathers told,
If the gray-bearded sage by the weight of his age
Had been able attention to hold,
We'd be reading by candles and heating with wood
And where we were then we'd have certainly stood.

If youth had been willing to listen
To the warnings and hints of the wise,
Had it taken as true all the best which they knew,
And believed that no higher we'd rise,
The windows of sick rooms would still be kept shut
And we'd still use a cobweb to bandage a cut.

If youth had been willing to listen,
Had it clung to the best of the past,
With oxen right now we'd be struggling to plough
And thinking a horse travels fast.
We'd have stood where we were beyond question or doubt
If some pestilent germ hadn't wiped us all out.

So, although I am gray at the temples,
And settled and fixed in my ways,
I wouldn't hold youth to the limits of truth
That I learned in my brief yesterdays.
And I say to myself as they come and they go:
"Those kids may find something this age doesn't know."

As to Mr. Lefrentz's appreciation of cowboy life and prairie sportsmanship the reader may be able to judge by a few extracts. The first verse of a charming opening tribute to the cowpuncher is:

I sit here and dream in the gloaming
Of one of the great human zoo,
Who owned to a fancy for roaming—
The ever alert buckaroo.

And a couple of the last verses as follows:

That he was unspeakably tough.
With penchant for setting in motion
Devises for treating 'em rough.
So when his career here was ended.
And he gracefully pulled his freight
The scribe wrote: "He tore, yes—but mended
As well, bless his heart—and shot straight."

Then listen to a few verses from "The Stag Dance."

Fiddles are screeching:
"Now is your chance!"
Begging, beseeching:
"Join in the dance!"
Hark to their bringing
Heels into play,
While they are singing
This roundelay:
"Swing her far out an'
Then swing her in;
Bring her about an'
Trail her again!"

And finally to the lanky cuss who laced his cayuse literally into the earth and himself into the Happy Hunting Ground, for—

Never more will Silly Billy
Trouble any livin' soul.
He wuz racin' when his fily
Stepped into a gopher hole.

POSTMASTER PAYS FOR DUCK SOUP

APOLLO, Pa., April 5.—Six wild ducks alighted in the Kiski river the other day. Thereby hangs a caudal appendage. For C. H. Truby, postmaster here, took his trusty gun, stood on the bridge and blazed away. Three ducks became duck soup. And yesterday a deputy game warden approached Truby with questions and allegations. Truby dug down in his jeans and produced a juicy fine. Hereafter Truby agrees he will buy his dinners at the butcher shop. They are cheaper, he said.

THE INITIAL TEST

"Tell the janitor to put up notices that no book agents are to be admitted to the building," said the publisher.

"But you have just advertised for agents to sell our new work," protested the secretary.

"Of course, I want to try the applicants out. If a man could be stopped by a little thing like that, what good would he be to us?"—Pathfinder.

Corn Borer Equipment Is Ready For Service

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 5. — Equipment purchase by the United States Department of Agriculture for use in last season's intensive campaign to control the European corn borer has been completely conditioned. Engineers estimate that the depreciation has been less than ten per cent. Approximately 2,800 units of machinery were stored in the sheds of the Army ordnance depot at Camp Perry, Ohio, near Oak Harbor, Ohio, last fall. A force of mechanics immediately went to work overhauling the machinery and making repairs to put the machinery in working order for use this season. Small quantities of machinery have been stored under cover at Toledo and Elyria, Ohio, where repair service has also been provided.

Five storage sheds, each 400 feet long by 96 feet wide, at Camp Perry house 993 tractors, 602 plows, 127 light trucks, 90 heavy trucks, and more than 350 stubble beaters. About 150 stubble beaters are still in the fields, used by farmers in the course of the late fall and winter.

In addition to overhauling the tractors the cylinders were filled with oil, ploughs were greased, and trucks with pneumatic tires were jacked up. More recently D. A. Milligan, who superintended the work, and his staff have been reconditioning the heavy trucks which failed to stand up under field conditions last season.

Fewer than 40 men have done the work and the cost has been less than 1 per cent of the original cost, except in the case of stubble beaters. On these machines the low cost new and the necessity for new blades made the percentage cost of overhauling somewhat higher. In doing the work the Department of Agriculture benefited from the full cooperation of the War Department which furnished the storage space and opened the facilities of the ordnance depot and machine shop at Camp Perry for use by the repair crew.

Coke Production Shows Increase In Past Week

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 5. — While Merchant operators were experiencing a slump in production, the H. C. Frick Coke company, the principal furnace interest, increased its output 4,750 tons during the week ending March 31, according to the regional compilation made here by International News Service today.

A loss of 880 tons by the Merchants reduced the net regional gain to 3,870 tons, the total output being 70,570 tons, as compared with 66,700 tons the week of March 24. Nearly 500 ovens were put into blast at Frick plants, while at the Merchant operations 14 ovens were blown out and 210 banked for the week.

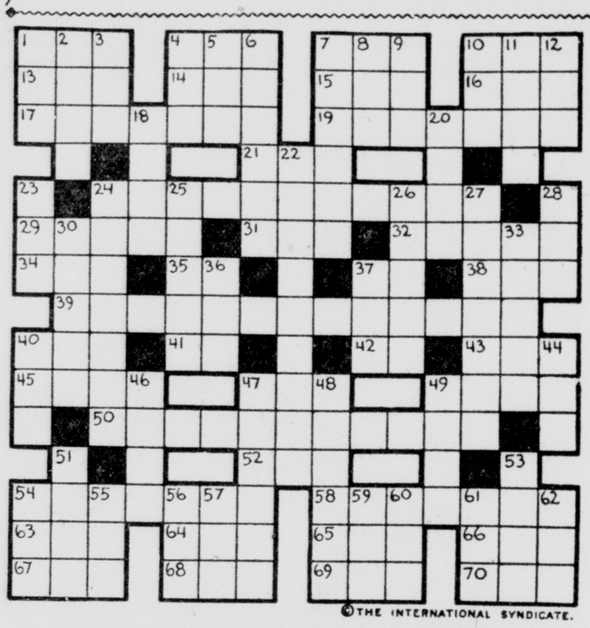

Reflecting the demand for Merchant coke, spot prices were unchanged, the range being $2.65 to $2.75 for furnace and $3.75 to $4.25 for foundry, the prices which have prevailed for several weeks.

AN INDIGNATION MEETING

It didn't take long for Peter to discover that between them, he and the little yellow bird had started something. The birds were holding a regular indignation meeting, each one assuring the other what could or couldn't be done to mend matters and to punish Cowbird.

At last Mr. and Mrs. Wren could stand it no longer. They had to have a voice in the discussion, and without even saying "excuse us" to the boy, over they flew to join the group about Red Eyes in the neighboring tree.

"Good gracious! What a bedlam those birds are making!" The boy laughed. "I don't suppose the Wrens meant to be rude. They forgot all about me, that is all, or else they took it for granted that I would follow them.

"I guess I will take a walk along Bird Row. Down at the end of it I saw a gay young lizard the other day. I wanted to make friends with him then, but he scooted under a stone. I think I will try it again."

Off from the porch and down the tree Peter scrambled. He was rather sorry to leave the Wren apartment, but there was no telling when his hosts would return and he didn't feel like wasting more time waiting for them. Besides the din that the birds were making made the boy's ears ache. As Peter passed the group they paid no attention to him but he heard Johnny Wren remark:

"Well, Vireo, you can say all you like. You are a preacher and one must have respect for your opinions and your kind heart. But I for one think that Cowbird should be driven from Birdland. And I believe if the two-legs all knew what a dreadful creature she was they would help us do it."

THE BEDLAM THAT THE BIRDS WERE MAKING MADE THE BOY'S EARS ACHE

"I'll peck her eyes out if I catch her," screamed Bluebird.

"Oh, my beautiful hairlined nest in the rosebush!" moaned gentle Chippy.

"Nonsense! Why cry over a laid egg? Bury it, I say!" declared independent Mrs. Yellowbird.

"Poor thing! Mrs. Cowbird just can't help being mean, she is just made that way!" said kind Preacher Red Eye.

Suddenly Johnny Wren began to sing and as each bird tried to make his or her voice heard above his high clear notes, the result was funny. Peter hurried by.

"Those birds will never come to any understanding, so what is the use of hanging around to listen to them?" thought he.

A cat-briar grew at the lower end of Bird Row, and it was under a stone near it that the gay little lizard made his home. There was no sign of lizard anywhere. Peter looked about for him on the ground. Then he bent over the edge of the stone and cried in a low voice:

"Do come out, Mr. Lizard, and play with me! I have seen you so often, and yet we have never really met. I am the two-legs who lives in the house by the edge of the garden, you know."

There was not a sound in reply. Nor did Mr. Lizard appear. Peter tried it again.

"That is a lovely coat you wear. Come out and let me look at it again, please do," coaxed he.

"Americanitis"

The speed at which we Americans live has given rise to a group of serious nervous and high blood pressure disturbances aptly described as "Americanitis". It's responsible for many break-downs and deaths at middle age.

Men who work hard, smoke hard and play hard overburden the liver whose job it is to keep the blood and system clean of poisons formed in food waste. Then follows an insidious toxic condition which saps strength and energy, increases blood pressure and hardens arteries.

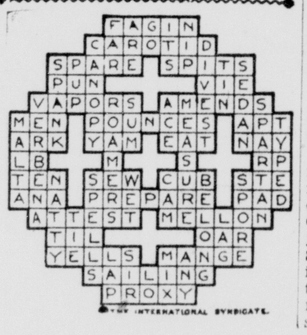

The liver occasionally needs a little help and there's nothing better for this, as medical men know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a great natural stimulant for the liver, promoting its normal active functioning, so essential to real health. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and a few make a vast difference. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol.

Kill 32 Cops In 3 Year War On Chicago's Gangs

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 5. — Thirty-two Chicago policemen have fallen before the rifle, pistol, shotgun and machine gun fire of Chicago bandits, thugs and beer gangsters since the police declared war on all gangsters three years ago according to figures of police casualties just compiled by Michael J. Hughes commissioner of police.

But at that the police feel they have not done so badly. During this same period the police have killed 143 gangsters and thugs a ratio of nearly five to one in favor of the officers of the law.

"In 1925 12 policemen were slain by bandits while 51 criminals were slain in battle with officers," Commissioner Hughes said. "During 1926 criminal guns claimed the lives of nine policemen while the underworld fatality list numbered 39. Again in 1927 nine policemen were killed by gunmen while 38 of the latter fell under fire of the police.

"Since Mayor Thompson ordered all gunmen driven out of the city the police have engaged almost nightly in battles with the criminal elements. Since January 1 15 gunmen have been killed by police fire while two officers have been added to the police death roll."

German Fliers Are Anxious For Start Across Atlantic

DUBLIN, April 5. — With the Bremen in perfect shape for an immediate take-off, the German fliers today hoped to be able to attempt their transatlantic flight within a few days.

Build Extension To Westminster Abbey

(International News Service)

LONDON, April 5. — For the first time in two centuries, an extension to Westminster Abbey is to be built. Preparations are now under way for the project, and actual construction work is to be started in the near future.

The extension is to be a Gothic building, which will be erected on the grass plot lying between St. Margaret's church and the sanctuary of the Abbey. The new building will be used as a sacristy—a small chamber or vestry where sacred utensils and vestments are kept. Few people realize that the Abbey, the most famous church in the British Empire, at present has no sacristy whatever.

Following a storm of protest last November, when large extensions to the Abbey were proposed by a commission, the Dean and Chapter have chosen a site for the new sacristy, which they believe will least detract from the architectural unity of the national shrine.

Construction of the new building was decided upon because of the need of space for robing ceremonies in connection with the many official ceremonies at the Abbey.

LIGHT and POWER PROGRESS

IN a half century of existence the electric public utility industry has reached the point where it is now serving 21,700,000 customers, generating 75,100,000,000 kw.-hr., and supplying 16,000,000 horsepower for factories for a gross revenue of $1,783,000,000.

The growth in the last 25 years has been remarkable, developing from three million electric horsepower in 1902 to thirty-three million electric horsepower in 1927, now representing a total investment in the industry of nearly $9,000,000,000.

These figures give some idea of the immensity of this industry which provides for cities, homes, and manufactories services and conveniences which only electricity can render.

Berlin Radio Fans Outnumber Those Of Any Other Capital

(International News Service)

BERLIN, April 5. — Berlin has more radio fans than any other capital in the world, compared with number of population.

With more than 12 subscribed "listeners" to every hundred of inhabitants Berlin easily leads the way before London with 8 and New York with only 6 per cent participating in broadcasting.

Of the more than two million officially recorded listeners all over Germany, 28 per cent belong to the upper middle classes, 18 per cent are public officials, and 45 per cent employees and workers while the rest of 9 per cent couldn't be classified, according to the latest statistics issued by the Reich's Radio Corporation.

During 1927 no less than 24,000 artists and other radio performers were employed, with a total of about nine million marks paid for wages.

The rapid growth of the wireless movement with hundreds of amateur radio clubs scattered all over Germany. It is estimated that now more than 7,000 are employed in the manufacturing of complete radio sets alone, while many times that number earn their living by selling radio tubes, antenna wire, etc.

The high standard of radio sets "made in Germany" is shown by the fact that, while the import of foreign makes into Germany has remained practically negligible, German radio apparatus are exported to all parts of the world in constantly increasing numbers.

Missouri Aviation School Now Has 270 Civilian Students

(International News Service)

MARSHALL, Missouri, April 5.—In less than three years' time, the Marshall flying school, a unit of the Nicholas-Beazley Airplane company here, has developed into what its officials declare to be the largest and most completely equipped civilian aviation school in the world.

The school at present has an enrollment of 270 students, representing every state in the United States, and three foreign countries. Several of the student-fliers reside in Canada, China and the Panama Canal zone.

The officials of the school point out that their project was enjoying only a meager success until the long distance flights of last summer came to the fore. After several successful trips were made across the Atlantic, they say, the institution grew as fast as the could accommodate new students and install new equipment for their training.

The school is equipped with a modern airport and landing field three miles south of here. The surrounding land is very smooth and thus eliminates many hazards for the student pilot.

Russell Nicholas is president of the airplane company, and Howard Beazley secretary. C. H. Miller is general manager of the flying school.

New fitness — new energy in a morning drink

Do this on rising in the morning if you feel out of sorts or unfit.

Drink a glass of water, hot or cold. Add a little "Epsonade," and you will have a sparkling and refreshing drink.

In an hour things will change. The drink will flush the intestines to eliminate the poisons and the waste. This is done in a prompt and pleasant, in a gentle and efficient way.

It is done by acids derived from lemon and grape.

Then remember this drink—"Epsonade" in water—whenever any clogging occurs. Take it any hour of the day. That's the quickest and the best way to correct things. Let a trial prove this to you. Get a small quantity, at small cost, at your druggist.

Legion Plans For San Antonio Meet; 150,000 Expected

(International News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, April 5. — After hearing the 1928 national convention program outlined by Philip B. Stapp, general convention director, and the local committees, National Commander Edward E. Spafford of the American Legion, on his recent visit here, predicted that the convention attendance, October 8 to 12, will be the greatest in the legion's history.

He stated that he expects the crowd here for the great gathering to reach 150,000.

San Antonio showed the commander some of the scenes of historic interest which will attract legionnaires and auxiliary members on their visits here—Fort Sam Houston, where thousands of men trained during the World war; the aviation center, the old missions and the cathedral, 200 years old and over. At the Alamo, where in 1836 every man in a band of 172 Texans, including the famous scout, Davy Crockett, lost his life before a Mexican army that outnumbered them 25 to 1. Commander Spafford in company with Governor Dan Moody, Judge Ernest A. Crockett, a grandson of the immortal Davy, and high officials of army and city, laid a wreath in the name of the legion.

The municipal auditorium, where the legion will hold its convention sessions, was shown to the commander. Built at a cost of more than $2,000,000 as a memorial to the men of the World war, the auditorium is the finest structure in which the legion has ever assembled in national conclave.

British Women Ask To Stop Marriages Of Younger Girls

By F. A. WRAY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 5. — Women's societies in Britain are agitating for the prevention of marriage under 18—and possibly 21.

The societies taking part include the National Union of Societies for Equal Citizenship, Lady Rhondda's "Six Point Group", the Women's Freedom league and the Open-Door council.

Some of the other points in their program are:

Endowments for falimies.

Proper teaching of birth control.

Right of women to retain their nationality after marriage.

Peerages for women as well as men.

Mrs. How Martin, the founder of the Suffragette club, says family endowments are an absolute necessity.

"Take the case of a single man earning $25 a week. This will not increase when he gets married. Then the children come along, and in a few years he may have as many as three, and have to support five people on the same salary as when he had no responsibilities.

"Is it any wonder that the children do not get a fair start?

"Employers should start a fund, and into this pay a certain sum for every man or woman, married or single, in their employ. The total should be divided among the married men."

This Prescription For Kidneys

No Drugs—Just Roots and Herbs

Ten years ago Dr. Carey said, "When backache comes get after your kidneys—and don't waste any time."

"Right at the start, go to your druggist and ask for Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777; take it as directed until backache ceases and your eyes are clear and bright."

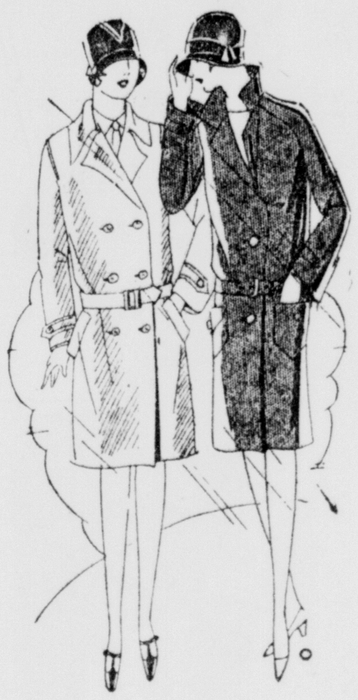

Thousands of unobservant people have kidney ailments and never know it until too late. Highly colored urine, getting up in the night, and puffy eyes tell the story.

If you even suspect—start today with Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777. It will drive the poisons from your kidneys.

Love & Megown dispenses lots of it. It will help you as it has a host of others. If it should not, if you aren't glad in one week's time that you bought it, money gladly returned.

NEW CASTLE BUTLER AND JEANNETTE W. J. Offutt Co. NEW CASTLE BUTLER AND JEANNETTE

The Diary of a New Yorker

BY CLARK KINNAIRD

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Variegated notes of a reporter covering the biggest beat in the world:

Henry Louis Mencken, the Antichrist of college freshmen, knows at least 30 hymns by heart, and frequently hums or sings them as he works. Sinclair Lewis, whose Elmer Gantry" caused shudders in some pastorages and tolerant smiles in others, also knows many hymns and is wont to sing them at home.

The former Millicent Rogers and Countess Salm, now Mrs. Arturo Ramos has, as pets, three pairs of love birds, a macaw and a leopard kitten, despite the fact that she lives in an apartment.

A. P. Giannini, the banking genius, who controls half a dozen financial institutions, spends several hours a day in reading thoroughly all of the newspapers of several cities. "Newspapers furnish me all the information and stimulus I need for work," he says. He doesn't read books.

Theodore Dreiser likes to play Canfield solitare. He estimates that he is about $1,400,000 in debt to the phantom operator of the game.

Add Lindberghiana: Male guests at parties attended by the flyer have been mystified when given a pain in the neck by the sharp impact of a beebee, or piece of buckshot. It appears that "Slim" has some fun now and then by carrying around buckshot and shooting them at necks from between his teeth. He is an accurate marksman, a teller-of-tales-out-of-school declares.

An organ-grinder, who frequents the region of West End avenue and 98th street, has placed his art on a business basis. He doesn't depend on chance-flung pennies. "Pay before I play," is his slogan. His instrument has a slot in which a nickel must be placed before music is played, and the organ accompanist doesn't put in all the nickels that are tossed to him.

Dr. John Roach Straton pronounces his name Strayton.

I was lunching with a knowing newspaperman at the Artists' and Writers' club, to which a few artists and writers belong. The k. n. indicated two distinguished looking men at a nearby table.

"Both of them," he said, "are millionaires. They get into the most exclusive society columns regularly, and their views on finance and public affairs are considered of importance. To the public they are symbols of respectability.

"Well, one of them has about $20,000 in unpaid, ignored I. O. U's, at Bradley's casino, in Palm Beach. The other is a regular attendant at hop-smoking parties that a bunch of swells hold in a hideaway in a skyscraper downtown. It's a funny world, ain't it?"

Peggy Hopkins Joyce is less kind to celebrity-hunters who annoy her. Whenever she is recognized in a shop, a crowd of women gather, and she either has to leave or continue her buying under the critical eyes of curious matrons. Before she sailed away to Europe the other day, she went through a trying experience in a manicure shop. Matrons collected outside and in to see her get a rose-colored nail shine. Her anger slowly arose, and when she left, to enter her nickel-plated limousine, she didn't hide her feelings about their efforts to touch her.

Wayne Township Taxpayers Want Better Highways

Petition For Presentation To Court Asking Ousting Of Road Supervisors

Petition signed by 35 taxpayers of Wayne township, asking for the removal of road supervisors Pete Tillia, William Friday and Lee Parker, for failure to keep roads in proper condition, was placed in the hands of former Judge J. Norman Martin this morning, for presentation to court.

The petition is the outcome of agitation, which has been going on in Wayne township for some time, for better roads. An association of citizens has been formed and meetings are being held for the discussion of road problems.

The roads specifically mentioned in the petition, are the Harlansburg road in the vicinity of the Mt. Hope school, the Squaw Run road and the Glasser Bridge road, leading to the Dick Victor camp for boys. It is said that all of these roads, as well as others, are in an almost impassable condition.

In discussions at recent meetings, it seems to have been the general opinion that the roads could be greatly improved by deposits of stone from farms on the road beds. This to be covered with gravel or ashes.

Girl Who Entertained In Chinese Club Patronized By Marines Boasts 200 Proposals

LAURA WHEELER

By DAVID H. GLICKMAN
Staff Writer for Central Press and New Castle News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 5.—Six thousand men to choose from with little or no competition with her own sex, and 200 chances to become the wife of a United States marine—and yet she comes home single!

That's just what pretty Laura Wheeler, song and dance girl, did. She related her unusual experiences of being literally swamped with proposals from the American "Bulldogs" on her arrival home in San Francisco, after an extended stay in China.

It was while entertaining in a club patronized by the men of the United States Marine corps that Miss Wheeler was the recipient of 200 offers of marriage.

How many girls would turn down such a volume of proposals? It is safe to say that the majority of them would weaken after turning down the first dozen or so.

"No, I am not opposed to matrimony," Miss Wheeler says. "And they were the finest boys in the world over there, all so lovely to me, that I felt that they were all big brothers. But there is plenty of time to get married. I want to see as much of the world as I can before I tie myself down to a domestic life."

LAWYER QUESTIONS HIMSELF IN COURT AND WINS CASE

BUTLER, Pa., April 5.—One of the novelties of the present term of court was the spectacle of an attorney trying his own case, questioning himself and placing his case on the records. This strange procedure appeared in the case of W. J. Whieldon, a resident of Mercer, and a member of the Mercer county bar. Mr. Whieldon was in court as plaintiff in a case against Daniel Errico for damages sustained in an automobile collision at Harrisville last August.

It was alleged that Whieldon, his son and daughter were driving at Harrisville when their machine was struck by the automobile of the defendant and damaged. The damages were assessed at $105.35. The jury after hearing the testimony returned a verdict in that sum for the plaintiff.

Sixteen acts, all of danger and daring, will thrill the immense crowds which will see the premiere performance of the wonder show. Sixteen acts for which the entire world has been scoured, will be presented in the gym of the Y. M. C. A., which for the time being, has been converted into a veritable "big top."

Airships To Travel Years Without Stop Rickenbacker Says

(International News Service)

OAKLAND, Calif., April 5. — Peering into the future less than a generation away, Captain Eddie V. Rickenbacker, world war ace, has visioned a world revolutionized by air transportation.

"Many of you will live to see the time when great air liners, many times the size of the dirigible Los Angeles, will travel for two of three years without landing," Captain Rickenbacker told members of the Athenian-Nile Club here.

"They will girdle the earth time and again at a speed close to 100 miles an hour," he continued.

"Airships like the Los Angeles will be ferryboats, transporting passengers and cargo to these air liners. Passengers and cargo will be transferred to these sky liners 10,000 feet in the air while the liner is cruising along at a 50-mile an hour speed.

"Air traffic is going to revolutionize business. The merchant who now buys on a 30, 60 or 90 day basis, will be able to buy on a 10, 20, or 30 day basis. Losses due to poor buying, obsolescence and seasonal conditions will be reduced to a minimum.

"I tell you we've got to run mighty fast to keep from standing still."

Money Changers Of Jedda Angry As King Sanctions New Bank

(International News Service)

JERUSALEM, April 5.—Ordinary banking business is taboo by the Koran and those to pay the price of their piety are mostly Mohammedan pilgrims to Mecca and Medina who are fleeced by the money changers.

Sultan Ibn Saud, Wahbi ruler of the Hedjaz, is trying to regulate matters for the benefit of pilgrims who if they use the English pound pay as high as four shillings per pound. Pilgrims from Malay, Java and the Sudan, all Dutch subjects, and using Dutch florins in buying the English pound sterling pay as high as 17 florins instead of the nominal value of 12.

A branch of a Dutch bank has been opened at Jeddah and as a result the rates of exchange have become normalized. The money changers are up in arms. They complain that the bank "depreciates" Hedjaz currency, but the Wahabi ruler recognizing that Jeddah, Mecca and Medina owe their prosperity to the pilgrims is not paying much attention to what they say.

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 5. — The Spring drive against Niagara river rum-runners was inaugurated by the coast guard in a speedy chase, amid a scattered shooting, which resulted in the capture of nineteen cases of whiskey and a small skiff.

Captain Paul H. Forner of the guard discovered a motor boat with a skiff attached. When he gave chase the motor boat cut loose from the skiff and made it's getaway. At the pier on Grand Island from which the motor boat started its flight the whiskey was found.

Husband Shooter Tells Conditions That Prompted Act

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 5. — It wasn't jealousy on my part. It was that I could endure no more."

Mrs. Esther Evans Wilson, the "Tiger Woman" who shot her wealthy husband a week ago uttered those words to a Salvation Army lass who had come to her cell in the woman's prison to comfort her.

Seeking sympathy and understanding the woman who has been in the habit of enjoying all that is good in life poured out her innermost feelings to her visitor and an old friend who saw her in her miserable surroundings behind bars.

"For seventeen years I've loved him in spite of everything, and, I love him now," Mrs. Wilson confessed.

Appealing and in yearning for the solace of friendship, the society woman and big game huntress told of her husband's alleged friendship for other women; how she could no longer bear the indignities" thrust upon her.

Pioneer Aviators In Army Air Service May Get Increase In Wages

Bill Introduced In House Would Grant Increase To Seven Intrepid Fliers

Those Commissioned by Army Prior To December 31, 1913, Would Get More Money

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—America's pioneer military aviators will be rewarded for their courage if congress accepts the recommendation of the house military affairs committee.

The bill which members Wednesday said would be reported favorably creates a special class of the seven surviving aviators commissioned in the army before December 31, 1913, and grants them special pay for life.

"We want to prove that republics are not always ungrateful," said Rep. McSwain (D) of South Carolina, author of the measure.

"We also want the youth of the nation to know that those who risk their lives to forward some new development in the national defense will be rewarded.

"These aviators did something more than was required of them in the line of duty—and we should recognize it."

Of the 35 army aviators who had qualified prior to December 31, 1913, 18 were killed in plane crashes, three died from natural causes and several retired.

The proposed increased pay would bring the salaries of the seven remaining in active service up to a range of $568.75 to $875 a month. Pay for those retired is also increased.

Those still on active duty are Brig. Gen. Frank P. Lahm, Brig. Gen. Benjamin D. Foulois, Lieut. Col. Roy C. Kirtland, Majors Henry H. Arnold, Thomas D. Milling, Herbert A. Dargue and Lewis H. Brereton.

One of these—Gen. Foulois—worked with the Wright brothers in their earliest tests of flying machines.

Returned Missionary Preaches Wednesday; Rev. Haverfield To Speak Tonight

Rev. Ralph I. McConnell, a returned missionary from Siam, preached last evening in the Central Presbyterian church. His sermon was based on the philosophy of sacrifice, losing your life to fully find it. We find pleasure and reward, even complete salvation by giving ourselves to God.

This evening at 7:45 the Rev. Ross M. Haverfield will preach. The young people will be in attendance. These services will lead up to the Easter communion, when new members will be received into the church and admitted to the sealing ordinance.

At the meeting Monday evening organiaztion of the committee and selection of officers will be one of the first matters up for consideration.

BOARD ACCEPTS OFFER OF NEWS

Ornamental Lights Are To Be Used At Some School Building

For several years there has been in front of the New Castle News, two ornamental light posts which have attached much attention because of their style of design. Because of the widening of Mercer street, these poles will be removed, and recently Fred L. Rentz, president of the News, offered them, as a gift, to the Senior High school.

They have been accepted by the school board and at some future time will be presented by Mr. Rentz to the Senior High school. The correspondence offering and accepting the poles, follows:

New Castle, Pa.
March 29th, 1928

School District of the City of New Castle, Dr. Clyde C. Green, Supt., New Castle, Penna.

Dear Sir:

Sometime ago the Honorable Fred L. Rentz erected in front of the News two ornamental lamp posts.

The proposed White Way on North Mercer street will make it necessary to re-locate these posts owned by the News. Mr. Rentz has long realized the need for more lighting in front of the Senior High school and would be pleased to make a present of these two posts to the School District for use at the Senior High school on Lincoln avenue, if the School District will make the necessary connections to them and providing, of course, such a gift would be acceptable. The two posts should be erected on the short stone base near the side-walk. They would effectively light the area in the immediate vicinity, particularly the curb at that point.

If the presentation of such a gift would be acceptable and you will advise us, we will have a formal presentation of the equipment made to the Board by Mr. Rentz.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of March 29th, 1928, in which you state that Mr. Fred L. Rentz will make a present of two Lamp Posts now in front of the News Building to the School District, for use at the Senior High school on Lincoln avenue, if the School District will make the necessary connections to them, was brought before the Board at the meeting of April 2nd, 1928; and I am instructed to advise you that the Board will accept the gift of the two Lamp Posts from Mr. Rentz with an expression of their appreciation.

Yours very truly,

CHARLEROI, Pa., April 5.—Just to be in keeping with the season, the weather man displayed all his wares in one day for Charleroi recently. April showers, December snow and March sleet were all uncorked within a few hours, and there was a nice brisk wind at times to top off the bill.

Then just to show he was only fooling, the weather man caused the sun to shine and the clouds rolled away. Then mercury began to rise and the snow which fell earlier soon melted.

IT TAKES ALL-BRAN TO RELIEVE CONSTIPATION

More and more people are eating bran for "health's sake" these days. And it's a fine thing. But not everybody realizes what a difference there is in so-called "brans." Doctors say it takes 100% bran to supply enough roughage to relieve constipation. Part-bran products, at best, can only be partly effective.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is 100% bran. It furnishes roughage in effective quantities—and in the most effective form: cooked and krumbled. It does a work part-bran products cannot hope to equal. Two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal—are guaranteed to relieve constipation.

Serve ALL-BRAN often. With milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Be sure you get genuine Kellogg's though—in the red-and-green package. Use it in cooking. Sprinkle into soups. ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Many Chances In Army Service

City Hall Recruiter Will Explain All Features Of Service To Applicants

There is no reason why any young man of good moral character, who has a desire to see some of the world other than that about the old home town district and at the same time learn some good trade, should not take advantage of the opportunities afforded along these lines by a term of enlistment in the United States army it is stated.

One of the branches of army service that is most interesting is that of the coast artillery, which handles the big guns of the army, also the railway artillery and anti-aircraft guns. Powder plants, telephone and radio systems, search lights and listening devices are maintained as auxiliaries for these guns, while motor trucks are used for the mobile heavy artillery. The Coast Artillery division also handles submarine mines. All these duties involve splendid training and coast artillery men have no difficulty in capitalizing their army experience in the landing of good jobs after they leave active service. The artillery school for this district is maintained at Fortress Monroe, Va.

The Engineering Corps is both combatant and technical branch. The army engineer is first of all a soldier. He can march, ride and fight and is also a branch of the army that includes study in drafting, lethography, photography, machine shop work, automobile operations, carpentry, printing, sheet metal work, electrical work, road building, etc. It will be of great advantage to the young men looking forward to a college education to serve an enlistment in the engineers. The school for enlisted men in the engineering corps is located at Fort Humphreys, Va.

Those interested in the army and these branches can secure further particulars at the army recruiting station in the city building, from Corporal Walter McKelvey, the officer in charge.

CLEAN-UP NEEDED

The Editor,
New Castle News.

Dear sir: The editorial in today's issue of The News, "Judged by Appearances", deserved widespread circulation and general reading. Of course, every city has its localities that do not reflect favorably the municipality. Generally speaking, New Castle outdoes many of her sister cities in the matter of cleanliness. There is, however, one place, and that in the heart of the city, that should be looked after by the proper authorities. The property bounded by South street, Mercer street, Lawrence street and Cochran Way, while having thereon no buildings, consists principally of a vacant lot that is littered with junk and debris of every description. The citizens of New Castle would hardly believe that such a dump existed in the center of their fair city. The rubbish thrown away on that lot constitutes a menace to the health of the locality. If those responsible for the disorderly condition and general uncleanliness of the property have no civic pride, then the authorities of the city should use drastic measures to force a clean-up.

Congratulating you on your timely and pointed editorial, I am,

Respectfully yours,
A. J. WEISENBERGER.

Deny Lindbergh To Join Wright Aeronautical Co.

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 5.—Emphatic denial of the report that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh would establish a commercial connection with the Wright Aeronautical Company was made Wednesday by W. M. Moore, official of the company.

Moore also deprecated the report that Colonel Lindbergh was planning a flight around the world.

"Colonel Lindbergh and the Wright Company are not merging," Moore said. "Our relationship with the colonel is only that of our company with a man who has done much to prove the worth of our motor. We have no plans in view to 'tie him up' with the company.

"We have heard no word from Colonel Lindbergh concerning any proposed tour of the world by him in a plane. As far as we are concerned, there is no purpose in such a trip as our motor has already shown its value. In addition, I do not believe Colonel Lindbergh has made any plans for the immediate future."

HOLDS SON'S HAND OVER HOT STOVE

OLEAN, N. Y., April 5.—James E. Nolan, 32, held the hand of his son, Paul, 6, on a hot stove and then turned it over to burn both sides as a punishment for playing with matches, according to city court testimony today. Nolan was sentenced to 60 days in jail.

Steel ships are built by men's muscles

531 men in the Sun Shipyards relieve muscle lameness this way

IT'S A REAL man's job—the work of the men on the ways in the big shipyards. It takes all the strength—the skill—the courage a man's got.

Big wages—adventure—the spice of danger! Yes, and stiff backs — occasional wrenches, sprains, bruises—and rheumatism when you've been riding the girders or running the big traveling cranes out in a drizzling rain all day.

How do men who do this heavy work relieve the effects of strain and exposure? How do they treat the occasional minor injuries that are bound to occur?

We made a canvass among the workers in the yards of the Sun Shipbuilding Company of Chester, Pa., one of the largest shipbuilding concerns in this country.

531 told us, "We use Sloan's."

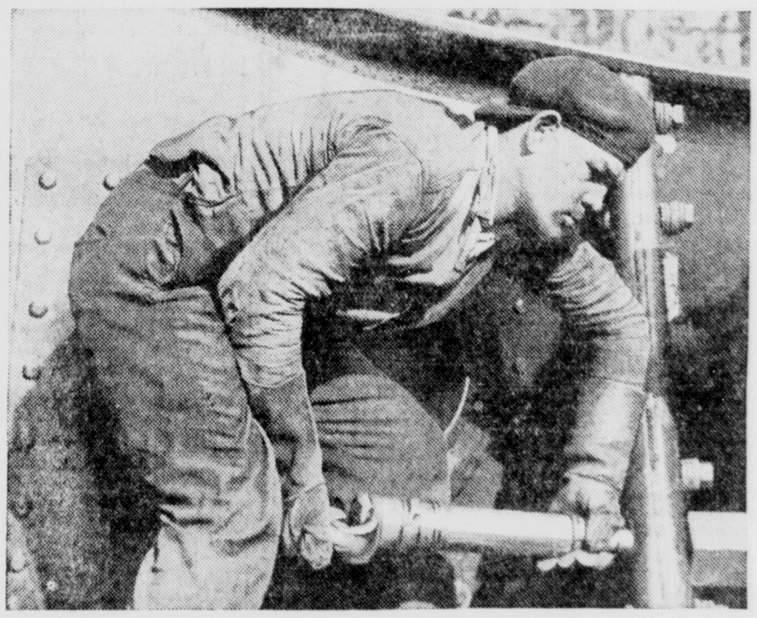

Miners, steel workers, policemen, firemen, stevedores, farmers—all who do hard muscular work know Sloan's. It is the liniment that always kills the aches that come from exposure to cold and wet, from heavy lifting—from strains, sprains and wrenched muscles.

Workers in every trade praise Sloan's

Read what this garage worker writes: "One night when I came in from my work my left leg pained me and the next morning it was swollen up and worried me when walking. I applied Sloan's Liniment to it that night and the pain nearly all left, but the swelling was still there so I applied it again and the next day the swelling was all gone. For aches and pains I find nothing to beat Sloan's Liniment. I keep a bottle in the garage where I work." T. E. Jacob, 1213 Reynold St., Shreveport, La.

Sloan's Liniment is pleasant and clean to use. You don't even have to rub it in. Just pat it on gently. At once you feel a tide of fresh, healing blood rush to the aching spot. Sloan's heals by helping nature. It isn't a drug—it is absolutely safe and cannot harm anyone. Keep a bottle always in the house. All druggists—35 cents. Use it for:

Rheumatism — Lame muscles
Sciatica — Stiff neck
Lumbago — Colds and congestions
Neuralgia
Sprains and bruises

One of the men in the Sun Shipyards who told us that they use Sloan's to relieve strains, colds, rheumatism

The company doctor of one of the biggest industries of the country says of Sloan's: "People whose work exposes them to strain or to damp and cold usually suffer from a good deal of muscular soreness. We find that Sloan's gives them quick, positive relief."

SLOAN'S Endorsed universally by those who do the world's hard work

Growing Children

sometimes require a tonic as do their elders ★

GIVE your child the right chance to develop, and you will not regret it in later years.

Many children become under-nourished due to lack of appetite. Keep the appetite keen. Food nourishes the body and makes it grow.

Also watch Nature's warning for changes in the system. Skin troubles—pimples, boils and that sallow complexion—all foretell a body weakness.

In such cases, S.S.S. is the proper tonic. It improves the appetite; helps Nature build rich, red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

In building rich, red blood cells, S.S.S. improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

For more than 100 years, S.S.S. has been helping children and their elders regain strength and vitality.

Children like S.S.S. It is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.

★ The physical welfare of the child is being given more attention by school authorities. Failure to keep up with class work and absence from school is probably due to a nervousness and run-down condition that may be largely attributed to a deficiency in red blood cells.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

BESSEMER NEWS

EASTER VACATION

Seldom is any other vacation more appreciated than the one which comes in the spring. After a long winter grind at school work everyone is delighted with the few day's rest at Easter time. This spring Bessemer schools are having two and a half school days off.

Various plans have been made for the spending of this extra time. Most of the teachers are going to their homes even though one does live far up in New York state.

Chapel will be postponed until next Thursday and at that time the student body will be entertained by an Arbor Day program.

BE-HI SALE

More "Records" were sold this month than ever before, which proves the theory that all the world goes bargain hunting.

Each April "BE-HI" carried on its front page a number. After the papers had been sold two numbers were drawn. The owner of the lucky first number received a kodak, the second number took with it a check good for an amount of merchandise.

The winner of the kodak was Ellen Yarvin, an eighth grade student. Mrs. Raymond Beale, a resident of Bessemer, received the second prize.

The next number of the Be-Hi will be issued May 1st. It is to be dedicated to the work of the orchestra and the Glee Club. The pictures of our Champion basketball team will also be printed in the next issue.

CHAPEL

If a vaudeville contractor were to come in during one of Miss Martin's programs perhaps a few of the Bessemer chapel stars would turn up missing in school, and be found among the "bright lights" of Broadway. At any rate the program Miss Martin created for last week's assembly seemed to please the most skeptical people in the audience.

To begin with, Elizabeth Macklin gave a reading, "Sister and I," which made Mr. Montgomery wipe his eyes and looks sad.

Mr. McConnell surprised everybody by giving an excellent imitation of Paderewski.

Miss Smith, the Wilmingtonian song bird, warbled "The Rosary," "Together," and "Nobody But You" with such dramatic effect that a far away, dreamy look came into the eyes of many. It's Spring, you know, and many a fancy——.

The Stanish brothers, freshmen and senior, twanged out some lively melodies on their mandolin and banjo. So lively, in fact, that many a foot became loose and expressed a desire to wander aimlessly about.

Mr. Montgomery, popular and beloved among Bessemer students gave a series of readings. During the last few years Mr. Montgomery has often enlivened chapel programs with his readings, which seem to abound in human interest and fun.

It would seem that this might conclude a crowded hour, but the "Rowdy Triplets," with much lipstick and chewing gum, but little dress and dignity, made their first "flappering" appearance. To the accompaniment of a "uke" and Barney's feet they chewed out some popular numbers.

TRACK

As track season draws nearer interest grows and prospects look bright. The season will open April 9th and it is hoped that there will be many out.

HEALTH DEMONSTRATION

Over a crusading route twenty nine miles in length, six members of Bessemer graduating class carried the spirit of Bessemer Hi to the health demonstration at Slippery Rock last Friday night.

The class had been honored by the Teachers College and had received complimentary tickets.

The program was presented by students ranging from the first grade through the higher grades of Normal Work.

OPERETTAS

Tuesday evening's operetta was a decided success and a credit to both teachers and pupils.

Forty two kindergarten tots under the guidance of Miss Chester entertained with games and songs.

Even the Bessemer High orchestra sent a hearty congratulation to Miss Fullerton and Miss Lusk for their excellent work in preparing the "Toy Orchestra." Another feature of the first grade program was the flower curtain which formed such anartistic background for the flower song.

Although Miss Weller and Miss Sepic always do wonders with their second graders in operetta work yet the merit of the work done in the "Florist Shop" presentation even excells former musicals.

April 17th is the date set for the next operetta.

VISITORS

Due to the vacations in nearby schools Bessemer has been honored by the presence of a number of visitors this week. Teachers and students of other schools and interested friends are always welcome when they come to observe Bessemer classes.

COMMUNITY EASTER PROGRAM

Sunday night, an Easter program, consisting of music and a moving picture, will be given in the Bessmer High School auditorium.

The musical numbers by the Girls Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Smith, and a duet by Mr. Martin and Miss Swanson will feature the beginning of this program. A very splendid picture, "From the Manger to the Cross," has been secured and will be shown as the main feature of the service.

No admission fee will be charged, and everyone in Bessemer will be made welcome. There will be a collection taken to partially pay expenses.

Harlansburg Road

The annual congregational meeting of the Neshannock U. P. church was held Monday evening, April 2. Election of officers for the ensuing year was as follows: chairman, Wes Gormley; secretary, Clyde Gormley; treasurer, Perry Forbes; one trustee, M. W. McCracken, and two auditors, Linsey Stewart and Robert Mounts, and pianist, Mrs. Ada Stewart.

At a recent meeting of the elders the following Sabbath school officers were appointed: superintendent, Thomas Blair; secretary, Linsey Stewart; treasurer, James Baker; pianist, Mrs. Ada Stewart; missionary superintendent, Hoyt Shaw; home department superintendent, Mrs. Della McCracken, and superintendent of cradle roll, Mrs. W. J. Graham.

The E. E. Ladies class met after the congregational meeting Monday evening and elected the following officers: president, Mrs. Marguerite Ritenour; secretary, Mrs. Margaret McConnell, and treasurer, Mrs. Lena Patton. The different committees will be appointed later.

Choir practice will be held Thursday evening, when special music will be prepared for Easter.

A special communion service will be held on Easter afternoon. There will be no preparatory services preceding this communion.

The next regular meeting of the Advanced Christian Leadership class will be held Monday evening, April 9.

The play, "Go Slow Mary", by members of the Liberty Grange, will be given at Liberty Grange hall Friday evening, April 6.

Raymond, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton McCracken, has been suffering from bealed ears. He had to have both his ears lanced Tuesday.

Mrs. William West has returned home after a few days' visit with relatives at Zellenople and Ellwood.

Virginia Robison of the Pulaski road visited recently with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McConnell, of the State road.

Everett McCracken and Hugh Forbes are confined to their homes with mumps.

Mrs. Annie McCracken and Mrs. Martha Baker were New Castle callers Saturday.

"It soaks clothes so much whiter

.....this safe hard-water soap is a life-saver on washday" says Mrs. David Woods, 440 Court St.

"RINSO makes such wonderful suds and is such a life-saver to the clothes—and to me, too—that I wouldn't dream of using anything else.

"You see, with Rinso to soak out the dirt there isn't any hard rubbing to do. You don't even need to boil the clothes every week, they turn out so brilliantly white and new looking. And of course clothes don't fray so much now, there's so little rubbing.

"Then, Rinso itself makes such wonderful suds that you don't need a water softener. We always use Rinso for the other cleaning, too. It certainly works like magic on the kitchen and bathroom floors, dishes and woodwork."

. . . Increasing millions use Rinso. Dozens of letters like this are from readers of this newspaper.

Lasting suds—in washer or tub

Suds at once, in the hardest water! Suds so rich even stains float off. Suds so lasting they remain thick and creamy until the wash is done. Then suds and dirt quickly rinse out together.

For the whitest wash ever, try Rinso! See for yourself why 32,000 washing machine demonstrators use it—why the makers of 32 leading washers endorse it.

Great for tub washing, too. Saves the clothes, saves your hands, by soaking out dirt. No harsh scrubbing, even at grimy edges.

Water Filter Is Put In Operation

Grove City Plant Removes All Traces Of Iron Deposits From Water

GROVE CITY, Pa., April 5.—The new municipal water filtration and softening plant was put into operation Wednesday, according to the announcement of Charles Foltz, borough superintendent. The new plant has been completed for several weeks, but due to thorough tests which had to be made, the filtered water was not turned into the borough mains until Wednesday. The new plant is supposed to remove all iron deposits in the water and to deliver a clear, pure and sparkling water.

Construction on the plant was started last November, when the Grove City voters acted favorably toward the $40,000 bond issue. Hudson & Myron of Pittsburgh were the consulting engineers in charge, and the general contracting was handled by the Phelps Construction company, Detroit, Mich.

Claim Shooting Of Trotzky Accident

(International News Service)

LONDON, April 5.—Despite emphatic denials by the Soviet government Thahleon Trotzky, deposed Russian leader, had been shot, an exchange telegraph dispatch from Helsingfors today stated that diplomatic circles at the Finnish capital were informed that Trotzky had been accidentally shot while on a hunting trip.

The exchange dispatch stated that the bullet which struck the Bolshevist leader was accidentally fired by a companion of Trotzky on the trip.

The Russian legation at Helsingfors refused to either confirm or deny the report but it was generally credited by Communist circles there, according to the dispatch.

BIG DEMAND FOR STATE BULLETINS

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 5—Demand for the various bulletins issued by the state department of agriculture is now at its height, officials said today. Advent of spring weather always brings a rush of applications for bulletins, it was said.

At the present time the bulletin "Insect Pests and How to Control Them" is proving the most popular of those mailed. Bulleting for the control of rose pests and poultry diseases also are in demand.

4 Yrs. Gastritis and Stomach Misery Gone

"For four years I suffered with gastritis, bloating and belching. Was in misery all the time. Nothing helped until I took Adlerika."—W. Taylor.

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc., (known as Adlerika) has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often poisoned the system for months. Second, Adlerika clears all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach trouble. And in addition, Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause neuritis, rheumatism, etc.

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, writes: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and bacilli."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated."

It will astonish you the great amounts of poisonous matter Adlerika brings out—matter you would never believe was in your system! In chronic constipation, gas bloating, sour stomach and sick headache, just ONE spoonful Adlerika brings wonderful relief. At leading druggists.

British People Are Pleased By U. S. Naval Cut

By F. A. WRAY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 5. — Few events have stirred the common people of Britain in recent years as the big cut in the contemplated American naval shipbuilding.

Coming immediately after the decision of the British Government to abandon the building of three of the projected large cruisers, it has seemed to the man in the street to be a real attempt to rescue the Geneva Conference from absolute failure.

The main idea present is that public opinion in both countries has had a speedy and effective result.

Seen As Logical

Nobody in Britain has suggested that the United States had not the right to build any and all ships that might be desired; in the same way, and intimation for the United States that Britain should not build any number of big cruisers would have been resented.

But the average man in Britain thought that the contemplated programs on either side were unnecessary, and might be taken as evidence of the failure of the Geneva Conference, and he rejoiced when he believed that both governments had bowed to popular opinion.

In addition to this, there is a widespread opinion in Britain, among men of all political creeds, that it is high time that the law and practice of war at sea should be overhauled and revived. Even lawyers admit that the British conception of the rules of contraband must be brought into line with modern requirement.

Government's Position

The British Government is beginning to realize this, and it is noteworthy that, during the past few months, it has withstood the traditional dominance of the Admiralty over British foreign policy.

Any Government in this country which took the matter boldly in hand would have widespread support and it would also have the satisfaction of knowing that it had done much to diminish the recent coldness in relations between the United States and Great Britain.

Slot Machines Invade Chicago Despite Police

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 5. — Indignation has been aroused in all parts of Chicago over the invasion of the slot machine menace.

Drug stores, candy shops, pool halls, barber shops and cigar stores have had the devices installed. Impetus was given the movement when Judge Phillip L. Sullivan granted a slot machine company an injunction against police interfering with the operation of the five-cent and twenty-five cent variety.

The owners of the machine claim they are placed in the stores and shops "purely for the amusement of patrons." In addition the owners pointed out the fact that a product is "sold" for the coin inserted inasmuch as the machine dispenses a package of mint tablets.

Gambling Devices

Police curtly termed the machines gambling devices. A hue and cry was raised in church and by school authorities who said school children were spending their lunch money in gambling for the coveted "trade checks" which occasionally issue from the lower slot when the wheels of chance turn to the correct symbols.

After the protest, Judge Sullivan dissolved his injunction and placed the matter entirely in the hands of the police.

A canvass of Chicago revealed the machines were as numerous as before the injunction was dissolved.

When asked why he had a slot machine installed in his cigar store, one owner said:

Have No Choice

"Well, I have to keep it in. You know I run punch boards and have this little dice game, minor gambling—and they told me if I wanted to keep the boards and dice I had to put in the machine so they could get their 'cut.' What can I say and what can I do? The big boys want their end of it. I get 40 per-cent of the intake of the slot machine and the outfit gets the other."

He declined to mention the "outfit" or who "they" referred to.

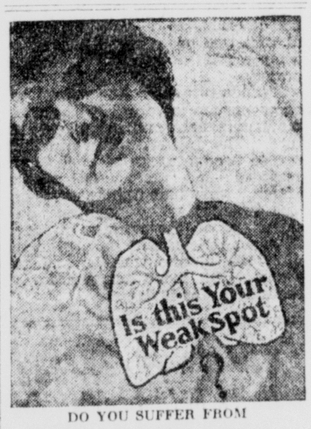

Chief of Police Michael Hughes announced he would start a war upon the machine and would compel store owners to remove them.

In the way women by thousands are turning to Essex is a story of the great and dynamic "man's Super-Six" made beautiful for women.

The stunning exterior grace and finish which bears closest examination with the honors of true beauty and workmanship, is carried on and heightened by the interior details of comfort, convenience and appearance.

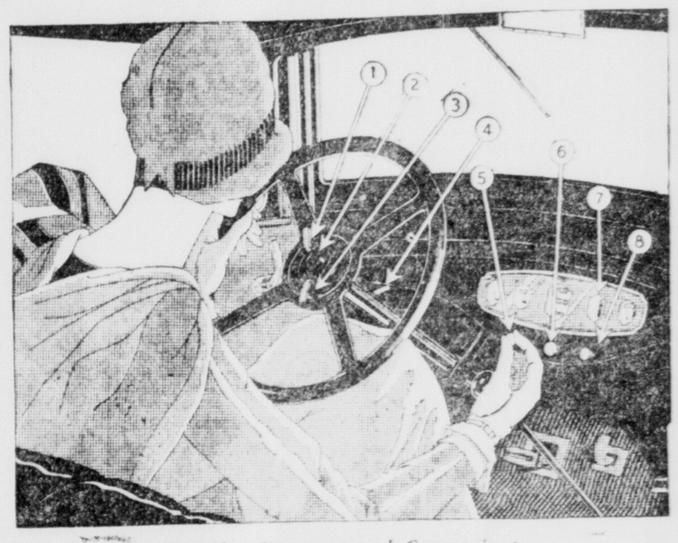

You sit upon high-back, form-fitting seats upholstered in material that is intelligent of quality to sight and to the touch. The winged radiator figure leads the eye out over a shining rhythm of cowl, hood, polished saddle type lamps and graceful arching fenders to the smoothly flying highroad.

You have before you every control in their most natural and handy place (see illustration). And all about you, the paneling, the weather-stripped doors, the silenced body construction, the floor-matting and the hardware in graceful silvery patterns speak quietly and certainly of quality.

The Essex Super-Six high-compression motor is patented and exclusive, and is so far as we know the most powerful of its size in the world.

The four-wheel brakes used on Essex are the same type used on costly cars and assure the maximum brake safety as well as the softness of control that you associate only with high-priced cars.

In this and such things as the black rubber, steel-core, finger-scalloped steering wheel, the worm and tooth disc steering mechanism and the vertical radiator shutters, Essex visibly duplicates costly car practice, as it does also in the hidden things you never see.

Plan Addition To High Course

New Wilmington To Have Commercial Course; Other News Of Town

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, April 5. — Looking into the future, the New Wilmington school board considered plans for establishing a commercial course in the local high school when it met in the regular monthly meeting here this week.

In connection with this new proposition, four of the members of the school board visited the Union and Bessemer high schools where commercial courses are established. These men, G. E. Nord, J. A. Shott, C. B. White, and R. S. Mercer were favorably impressed with their inspection of the business courses in the nearby secondary schools.

A special meeting of the board is to be held this Monday to further consider extension plans.

ELECT TEACHERS

Besides the discussion of extension plans at this week's meeting, the local school board also elected teachers for the coming year. Those re-elected in the high school were: Principal G. E. Nord, Assistant principal Miss Mae McKelvy, Miss Lucille Beerbower, and Miss Mary Thorpe. One new teacher was elected. She is Miss Evelyn Winger of New Castle. Other vacancies in the high school faculty will be filled later.

The teachers who will instruct the grades for the next year are: Miss C. Williams, seventh and eighth grades; Miss H. Wilson, fifth and sixth grades; Miss M. Rich, third and fourth grades; and Miss L. McElroy, first and second grades.

Routine business was also disposed of at the meeting.

NEW WILMINGTON NOTES

Dr. H. Hart left here early this morning by automobile to attend the Medical Convention being held at the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburgh. Dr. Hart is especially interested in the physiotherapy lectures that are to be given and he will remain in Pittsburgh both Thursday and Friday.

Meeting in the local high school building, the seven girls who were awarded N. W. varsity basketball letters elected Doris Rohrbaugh of their number to be next year's captain. Miss Rohrbaugh has been on the team two years and plays the side center position. Only three of this year's team will don the blue and gold uniform next season.

Soviet Ragamuffins Kill And Rob Woman To "Have Good Time"

(International News Service)

LENIGRAD, April 5. — Two half-starved homeless ragamuffins, each only 13 years old, clubbed and stabbed a 60-year-old woman to death and then robbed her of 20 rubles ($10) "to have a good time."

The two young murderers, police learned, had spent most of the winter in a shack on the outskirts of Kalpina, a suburb of Leningrad.

To satisfy a craving for a radio the lads waylaid the old woman shortly after dusk and when she refused to part with her purse, they grabbed her cane, beat her into unconsciousness and then thrust a finnish knife thru her heart.

Police arrested them the following day as they walked out of a radio shop with a crystal set.

TROTZKY SHOOTING "APRIL FOOL" JOKE

(International News Service)

BERLIN, April 5.—Reports circulated throughout Europe for the past twenty-four hours that Leon Trotsky, the former Russian war minister, had been shot by a young Communist and was dying in Turkestan, were discovered to have been the result of an "April Fool's joke" planned by Sevodnia, a Russian language newspaper published in Riga, Latvia.

This newspaper on April 1 printed the report of the attack upon Trotzky, and followed it up with an explanation, declaring that there was no foundation for the original story.

Chamberlin Stresses Need For Airports

The need for more municipal airports and also the need for a flying code are the points stressed by Clarence D. Chamberlin, New York to Berlin flyer, who will be in New Castle Thursday, April 12, at which time he will deliver a series of lectures under the auspices of the Airport committee of the Chamber of Commerce, says Herbert Peairs, manager of the Scottish Rite cathedral and also acting secretary of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce.

"Since the time is close at hand," says Chamberlin, "when business will be transacted over the air, or through it, the need for more airports is apparent. It would seem to me, also, that state legislaures are beginning none to soon to consider matters relating to aviation and its development. Provision for airports, regulation of certain classes of flying by code, and above all keeping abreast of developments in flying, are of increasing importance to aviation. States have need for consideration of the many phases of aviation that come within their purview."

Chamberlin will arrive in Lawrence county shortly before 2 oclock Thursday, April 12. As soon as he is sighted, planes which will be waiting at the Harlansburg Road airport will rise to greet him and escort him to New Castle. At the field he will be met by a reception committee of prominent men of New Castle, and he will be presented with the key to the city, made out of solid tin.

Immediately after the ceremony, he will be taken to the Scottish Rite cathedral, where he will address a meeting of school children at three o'clock. At 6:30 a community banquet will be served in the diningroom of the Scottish Rite cathedral. A lecture at eight o'clock in the auditorium, will complete the program.

LIGHTNING STUNS BRUIN OIL WORKER

BUTLER, Pa., April 5.—Donald Bullman, aged 25, of Bruin probably owes his life to the fact that his hands were in his pockets yesterday noon when a heavy electric storm which hit this vicinity struck a derrick under which he was working.

Bullman was working on a well on the Al Butler lease about a mile and a half south of Bruin. At 12 o'clock, just as the storm broke, he walked to the framework of the derrick on the floor, stuck both hands in his pockets and leaned against the frame.

That was the last Bullman recalled until ten minutes later when he regained consciousness. He was still standing against the framework, his hands in his pockets and none the worse for the wear.

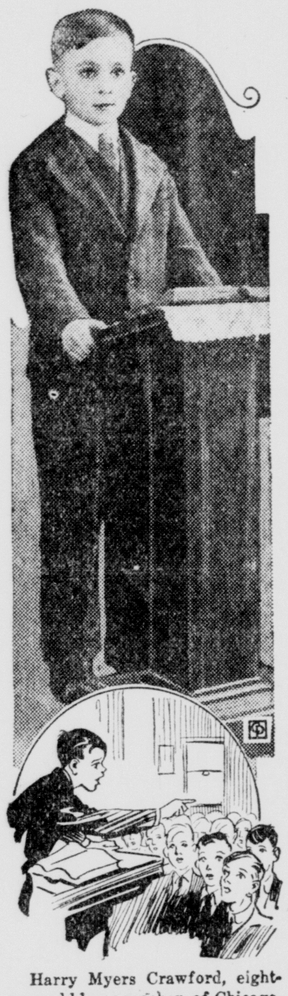

He walked to a doctor's office and there it was disclosed that his underclothing was scorched. On his arms and chest stood out in bold relief tree-like images, caused, doctors say, to the stimulation of the small arteries in the chest and arms. Several photographs were taken of the peculiar case.

POSTAL WORKER IS INJURED BY FALL, HORSE RAN AWAY

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., April 5.—Arthur Conkle, 30, rural mail carrier, was in a serious condition at his home near here last night as a result of concussion of the brain and other injuries sustained when he was thrown from his postal wagon when his horse ran away.

Conkle, whose head struck a stone when he landed in the road, was found unconscious by Denver Williams, who made a search for the carrier after he stopped the runaway horse.

Because his route covers a territory which includes many unimproved roads, Conkle has been forced to use a horse-drawn vehicle as well as an automobile.

SUFFERING OF 2 YEARS ENDED BY THE NEW KONJOLA

This Man States He Is Free Of Stomach, Liver And Kidney Trouble.

MR. JOHN W. BROWN

Seavy Photo

The extent to which this new Konjola medicine is helping the people of New Castle has become the talk of the drug and medical trades of this section. Throngs are calling daily to see the Konjola Man at Love and Megown's Drug Store, 204 East Washington St., this city, and hear his personal explanation of this surprising compound. At the same time, a stream of voluntary indorsements and reports are received from people of this vicinity, describing the remarkable benefits they have derived from the use of this medicine.

"Konjola is first of all a new, advanced remedy," explained The Konjola Man yesterday. "It is a liquid containing medicinal extracts from twenty-two plants of nature. This compound works with the sufferer's own food, restoring the stomach, liver, kidneys and nerves to better action. It removes the poisons which cause most of the chronic aches and pains, and therefore, the people who take Konjola nearly always report new feelings of health over their body in general.

"One of the latest residents to make a public indorsement of Konjola is Mr. John W. Brown, 1113½ South Mill St., this city.

"I strongly indorse such a medicine," said Mr. Brown, "It has brought new health over my entire system and gave me wonderful relief from kidney trouble and a general rundown condition.

"I was a sufferer for two years and during this time, I had taken every kind of medicine I heard of but got almost no relief. Most of my trouble was due to sluggish disordered kidneys. My back was full of pain and I was subject to constant night rising. The bad condition of my liver affected my whole body. My eyes were weak and the whites were very yellowish. All during the day I had splitting headaches and awful dizzy spells when I would have to hold onto something to keep from falling. With all these health troubles I thought my case almost hopeless.

"About three weeks ago I heard about Konjola and got some of this medicine. Before the first bottle was gone I began to feel better. My kidneys got stronger, and I did not have to get up during the night. All the pains in my back disappeared and I would hardly realize I ever had kidney trouble. Konjola cleansed and regulated my liver. My eyes cleared up and the headaches and backaches are gone. I can sleep perfectly through the whole night and feel refreshed in the mornings.

"Konjola certainly is a wonderful medicine, and once more I want to say that I am glad to indorse it."

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

John Klemato Is Discharged In Conspiracy Case

Indictment Failed To Specifically Set Forth Act As Alleged

RELATED LARGELY TO MONEY MACHINE

In the case of the commonwealth against John Klemato, found guilty of conspiracy with intent to cheat and defraud, Judge R. L. Hildebrand handed down an opinion this morning in which defendant's motion for a new trial is refused. His motion for arrest of judgment, however is granted, and the defendant is discharged.

The case was one in which Klemato was alleged to have conspired with Wasel Mackarow to defraud Ludwig Sczysko out of $3600. It was claimed that Klemato and Mackarow had told Sczysko that they had purchased a farm for him, and thereby induced him to turn over to them $3300. No farm had been purchased. It was also claimed that they had represented to Sczysko that they had a wonderful machine or box in which money could be made. On the trial of the case it is claimed that the testimony of Sczysko and other witnesses was confined almost exclusively to this money making box and it was upon this testimony making box and it was upon this testimony that the verdict was returned against Klemato. Mackarow had left the city and could not be found at the time of the trial.

The testimony indicated that the prosecutor had been induced to part with his money largely through the stories about the money making box, the theory seems to have been that a small amount of money could be placed in the box and it would be turned into a much larger amount.

The court holds that an indictment charging conspiracy must set fourth the specific act alleged which constituted the conspiracy. A bill of particulars was offered in which this was set forth, but they differed from those in the indictment. It was upon the law relating to the indictment and the bill of particulars that the court discharges the defendant.

Judge Hildebrand also handed down an opinion in the matter of the final account of Ellsworth J. McMurray, trustee in partition in the estate of the late Catherine McMurrary. Exceptions were filed by Lyda J. Shaffer, a daughter in which she objected to a deduction of $785.60 from her share of the estate.

Catherine McMurray died on May 27th, 1919. Mrs. Shaffer occupied one of her properties until the time of sale in April, 1925. The deduction from her share was made for rent of the house during this time. The court holds that this was a proper deduction and confirms the account as filed.

City Jail "Angel"

"Freckled-faced angel," is the title bestowed upon Alice Marie Hall, 18, of Richmond, Ind., by her fellow prisoners in the Cleveland, O., city jail. Arrested on a charge of defrauding a hotel of four days' board Alice, actress, toe dancer and acrobat had $11. Two days later she had spent it all on meals and dainties for jail inmates.

Senator Walsh Scores Robinson For His Attacks

Brands As "Piffle" Attempt To Drag Prominents Into Oil Case

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Lauding the public careers of Governor Al Smith and William Gibbs McAdoo, Senator Thomas J. Walsh, (D) of Montana today branded as "piffle" the attempt of Senator Arthur R. Robinson (R) of Indiana to link all three to the oil scandals.

Walsh declared he could see no "culpability" in Smith's appointment of Harry F. Sinclair as a racing commissioner in New York. He also said he could see no wrong in McAdoo accepting employment from Edward L. Doheny.

Touching on his own part in unearthing the oil scandals, Walsh accused Robinson of seeking to "snatch away" from him the gratitude of the American people.

Mrs. Esther Wilson Admitted To Bail

Big Game Huntress Charged With Shooting Husband On $25,000 Bail

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 5.—Mrs. Esther Evans Wilson of Washington, who is charged with shooting her politically prominent husband, Dallett H. Wilson, a week ago today, gained her liberty on bail early today and is said to be hiding with friends. Bail was furnished to the amount of $25,500 by a professional bondsman without security.

The big game huntress left the women's jail here, accompanied by her attorneys and bondsman. She was in tears; happy tears apparently at being temporarily liberated from her cell.

As she left the jail she took a final puff on a cigarette, threw it to the floor and crushed it beneath her heel.

When asked whether or not she had anything to say, she replied indignantly:

"Good God! In this place and at this hour I can't even collect my thoughts." Then she almost shouted, "I can't say a thing."

The next hearing on the felonious assault charge against Mrs. Wilson will be next Monday.

Stevens Case May Reach Jury Today

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 5.—Just before the noon recess, closing arguments for both sides were completed and the case of Robert Stevens, 15, on trial for murder, was expected to be placed in the hands of the jury this afternoon.

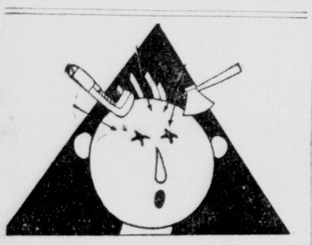

The state, seeking a first degree verdict, did not ask for a death penalty. The defense asked for an acquittal.

The only witness today, Dr. Florence Teagarden, professor of psychology at University of Pittsburgh, testified the youth was mentally deficient.

Stevens and Alvin Hess, 16, both of West Homestead, were indicted for murder of an unidentified man after robbing him of $3.75. A new trial has been asked for Hess, sentenced to life imprisonment.

To Use Cathedral Roof This Summer

Management Plans Spanish Patio As Attraction To Roof Garden; Best Music

If plans which are now being made by Herbert Peairs, manager of the Scottish Rite cathedral, materializes, New Castle is going to have one of the best roof gardens in the western end of the state this summer.

"So far, I believe that the roof garden of the cathedral has been sadly neglected," states Mr. Peairs. "As far as I can learn, it was used but twice last summer, with indifferent success. Now there is no reason for this. The roof of the cathedral has possibilities!

"As soon as the weather will permit, the garden is going to be cleaned and re-decorated. Potted palms and ferns will be placed about the floor, and around the sides tables will be placed. Lights will be dim, for we propose to use more of the natural light of the moon.

"Only the best in the way of entertainment will be provided for the patrons. College orchestras will be imported, as well as local bands of musicians. Yes, it will be the garden spot of New Castle.

"The scheme of decoration which I have in mind now will consist of the Spanish Patio as it has been developed in Southern California and Mexico."

Wheels Of Justice Move Swiftly, Man Held For Murder

Young Framingham, Mass., Business Man Held As Slayer Of School Teacher

(International News Service)

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 5.—Wheels of the legal machinery in the case of Frederick Hinman Knowlton, Jr., young Framingham business man accused of the brutal slaying of Miss Marguerite Isabelle Stewart, Beverly school teacher, moved swiftly this afternoon.

Young Knowlton was hardly lodged in East Cambridge jail following his plea of "not guilty" to a murder charge in crowded district court at Concord when Assistant District Attorney Frederick A. Crafts issued a call for a special session of the Middlesex county grand jury tomorrow. Crafts said that arrangements were made for an arraignment tomorrow after the grand jury session.

Mrs. Knowlton came from Framingham this afternoon to see her husband, who was worn and pale from his ordeal of questioning and his court appearance.

Man Is Hotel Prisoner As Cleaners Fail Him

Troubles never come singly. Usually they are grouped, and it is always darkest just before the dawn. Or that is what the telephone operator at The Castleton thinks. For she has all the troubles of all of the guests, or so she says.

It was earlier in the week that a traveling man checked into the hotel, and possessing but one pair of trousers, he sent them to the cleaners overnight, so that they would be all bright and new when he called on his clientele the next morning. In fact, he left specific instructions with everyone that "them pants must be done at seven o'clock".

All unknowing he slept the night through. Seven o'clock arrived, and no pants. Seven-thirty. Finally he called up the operator and politely requested that she get "them pants" to him as soon as possible. She replied that she would try.

But eight o'clock came and still no pants. Again he called the operator, who denied all knowledge of coverings for his nether parts. "But," he exclaimed nervously, "how can I do business without my pants? I want my pants!"

The bell boy went up to his room, to try and quiet the man, but was promptly run down the steps. Everyone tried to quiet him, and half of the staff was out in search of the missing trousers.

Finally, at ten o'clock, the trousers showed up, the man donned them, and went out to call on his trade.

But the flick which made a gigantic piece of satire of the whole affair came this morning, when phone operator received a letter in the mail. Its contents were a cartoon, depicting a man in a hotel room calling on the powers that be to get his pants, and a single piece of note paper, on which was written, "How true!"

Then, there are those who delight in funning with the luckless phone operators. Recently a man called the office and requested that he be put in touch with Adam Adams of Appiesville.

The girl searched through the phone book, and called the man back, telling him that there was no Appiesville.

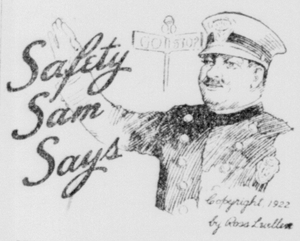

"Well," came the reply, "I'm Steve Brodie, and if anyone calls for me, I'm on my way to the Brooklyn Bridge."

And what can a poor girl do?

Music Can Aid In Healing Sick Composer Says

NEW YORK, April 6.—Music can play a great part in restoring the sick to health, according to Ernest Schelling, pianist, composer and conductor, who for several months has been interesting himself in the charitable work of the New York City Visiting Committee of the State Charities Aid Association.

"I am convinced from my experience in the municipal hospitals of New York City, and in many of the army hospitals abroad where I played during the war, that music is an important factor in restoring certain classes of patients to health, especially those with nervous and mental troubles," he said yesterday.

"I believe that musicians could accomplish a great deal by giving their services to aid physicians and hospitals in the treatment of certain types of cases," he continued. "The help of a competent musician who would associate himself with physicians or a hospital and devote his time and effort for six months or a year to an institution to study the possibilities with individual cases would contribute greatly to what may be a major factor in the treatment of certain forms of illness."

Mr. Schelling is now actively assisting in plans for the benefit performance which, with Will Rogers as the feature attraction, is to be given at the Gallo Theatre, No. 254 West 54th Street, Sunday night, April 15, to help raise funds for the committee's work.

Ellwood Stone Co. Appeal Dismissed

Workmen's Compensation Board Dismisses Appeal In Injury Case

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)

HARRISBURG, April 5. — The Workmen's Compensation Board has dismissed the appeal of the Ellwood Stone Company, of Ellwood City, from a referee's decision favoring Louis Scarpitti of Butler. Scarpitti was injured while working for the company.

The referee has found that he is now receiving a weekly wage of $9 and prior to his disability his average weekly wage was $67.86. In its report the board says the referee is convinced that the man is not able to return to his former work but that he was not totally disabled when he quit work on October 26, 1926. He was allowed compensation at the rate of $12 a week from the date in October, 1926, to the time of the hearing.

During the hearings on the matter it developed that Scarpitti was urged to undergo an operation of a minor nature that would have improved his condition. The Ellwood Stone Company agreed to pay the expenses and the referee directed the man to submit to the operation on or before September 1, 1927. If he failed to have the operation before that time compensation was to stop until he had submitted to reasonable surgical treatment.

Good News for Expectant Mothers

Doctor's Discovery Relieves Much Unnecessary Suffering

IT has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering experienced during expectancy, as well as at childbirth, is entirely unnecessary.

Dr. Holmes' discovery, "Mother's Friend," aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth!

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., writes: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used "Mother's Friend" and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Start using Mother's Friend tonight—the sooner the better and write for free booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" (sent in plain envelope). Mother's Friend is sold by all drug stores. Bradfield Regulator Co., Desk 21, Atlanta, Ga.

ADDS "MOB PARTY" TO DICTIONARY

A "mob party," as defined by Betty Koerble, 16, of Milwaukee, Wis., is one at which everyone does as he or she pleases. Such a party brought her a husband, Logan John Weldy, also 16, and later some time in a jail cell. The party was held at Chicago. When their money ran out Betty's mother appeared on the scene with enough cash to insure the marriage. But Betty had been purchasing a trousseau and adding it to the charge account of someone else, according to charges that were filed.

HELD IN SLAYING OF COP-LOVER

Marie Howard, 19, of Kansas City, Mo., is awaiting trial in the county jail at Kansas City, charged with the fatal shooting of Irvin "Speedy" Stephens, plainclothesman and crack shot of the Kansas City police department. Miss Howard admits shooting Stephens as he slept in a "police-protected" apartment after a party. She declares that she "couldn't stand him any longer," and that he put her on the streets for immoral purposes to get her money. Both are shown above.

D. A. R. Blacklists

Approval of the action of the Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution in blacklisting certain speakers, said to oppose a large naval program, has been given by Mrs. Alfred J. Brosseau, above, president general at Washington. William Allen White, below, noted journalist of Emporia, Kas., declares: "I am classed as a Socialist on the list, although I am one of the big seven delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention. . . . The D. A. R. is all right; just foolish leadership and a taste for idle, apoplectic old gentlemen in red flannels who escape the boredom of their rich wives by sitting in club windows in Washington, bemoaning the decadence of a growing world. . . ."

FIGURES IN CHICAGO TURMOIL

Illicit rum rings are blamed for the recent outbreaks of bombings and shootings in Chicago. Voters Will Select National Delegates At April Primary

With the present nation wide interest in the selection of a Republican nominee for the presidency, the matter of delegate to the National Convention is occupying the attention of voters at the present time. Here and there one finds some slight misunderstanding of how delegates are allotted to the various districts.

In Pennsylvania there are two delegates allowed for each Congressional district, which means that Pennsylvania will elect 72 delegates, in addition seven will be elected at large, giving this state 79 delegates in the National Republican Convention in Kansas City in June. For each delegate and each delegate-at-large, there will be an alternate elected.

Courtesy in Districts

In this district, the 26th Congressional District, comprising Lawrence, Beaver and Butler counties, it has been the custom or a courtesy in past years, to elect the delegates from the two counties other than the one in which the Congressman resides. This time it means that the delegates would be expected to come from Lawrence and Butler county.

Beaver county has no candidates for delegate to the convention, the candidates being F. W. McClung, of Butler county and Fred L. Rentz, and John Elder, Jr., of Lawrence county. Of these three the voters will elect two.

Delegates and alternates are elected at the primary. The men and women selected on April 24th, will go to the convention in Kansas City for the convention, which opens on June 12th 1928. The office of delegate or alternate carries with it no salary or expenses, the person elected assuming all expenses himself.

Plan To Beautify Grove City Campus

Student Council Starts Intensive Campaign; Help Roll Lawns

GROVE CITY, Pa., April 5.—Student council, the student governing body at Grove City college, has launched a campaign this spring for the purpose of beautifying the local campus as much as possible.

With the first sign of spring, several weeks ago, the council erected small fences along all the walks on the campus and conducted quite an advertising campaign, asking that pedestrians "keep off the grass." Inclement weather has delayed further work until the past few days when the members of the council, headed by Ted Rosenberg, president, have been busy rolling the soft campus lawn.

To Build Highway In Bed Of Canal

An Estimated Saving Of $200,000 Promised By Using Old Canal Bed

(International News Service)

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 5.—County commissioners have announced that the proposed new highway between Pottsville and Schuylkill Haven will occupy the bed of the abandoned Schuylkill canal for a considerable distance.

Work on the new road will be started this spring and state engineers, after a new survey, estimated that approximately $200,000 would be saved by building part of this four mile route over the canal bed.

Present plans call for construction of a thirty-foot road-bed, county commissioners said, which would permit four-way traffic.

PROVED TO BE JUST WHAT HER SYSTEM NEEDED

Lady Tells How Ten Herbs Ended Long Suffering; Change Is Remarkable.

"Ten Herbs proved to be just the medicine my system needed, and I cannot praise it enough, after what it has done for me," was the statement of Mrs. Robert Gamble, 712 Oakwood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating this popular medicine. "I do not worry any more, as life looks brighter," Mrs. Gamble continued.

MRS. ROBERT GAMBLE

"I had suffered with my stomach for years, and got so bad that I had to be very careful what I ate. The lightest kind of food would cause gas and bloating. Food did not give me proper nourishment, and my system finally became very much weakened and run-down. Every afternoon I had a knawing feeling in my stomach and it was not relieved until I ate a couple of mouthfuls of food. Any little exertion would cause me to get short of breath. I lost weight, and was on the verge of having a nervous breakdown. My nerves were so unstrung that the least noise would make me jump. I was always constipated, and my liver was very inactive. I had dizzy spells and sieges of terrible headaches that would last for several days. My complexion was sallow. I lost all ambition and sometimes felt that life was not worth living.

"I tried many kinds of medicines, but never got satisfactory results, until I started taking Ten Herbs. Your medicine put my stomach in such good condition that I can eat anything I want without distress. Gas does not form, and I do not have shortness of breath. I sleep soundly, as my nerves are quiet. My bowels are regular, and my liver is working properly. I have not had a bilious attack, dizzy spell, or headache since I began using Ten Herbs. I arise in the morning feeling as though I had gained strength during the night. I have gained in every way, and feel like a new woman. Friends remark about the change in me, and I tell them that Ten Herbs did it, and I gladly endorse your medicine to the public."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 E. Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine. Free sample given.

Red Letter Days

By Edna Wallace Hopper

For very special occasions, "when one simply must look her best" the skin needs freshening and toning. And a "facial" comes to the rescue.

Some women look young and carefully groomed for a night or two. Then their skin gradually lapses back into muddy, dull hue—until another important event.

Edna Wallace Hopper as she looks today

You can give your face the firm, flawless tone of youth. You should keep it in this condition, not only for important engagements but every day because you're just as closely scrutinized day in and day out.

This is the simple treatment I have found really necessary for youthful skin:

Apply my White Youth Clay once a week, twice a month or as often as your skin requires. After washing it off you will feel the pleasant sensation of a real astringent. The clay rids your skin of blackheads and similar blemishes, gently purging the pores of their accumulated impurities which sometimes sink so deep, especially in oily skins.

My White Youth Clay is the only dainty, agreeable clay pack I know. You can get it at any toilet counter.

How To Achieve Beauty

By MME. HELENE RUBINSTEIN
Noted Beauty Expert

The Waltz Step.

We all know the waltz step. It is the one dance that will never go out—not while there is youth and moonlight and harmony still existent in the world. And if you have treasured memories of a "Last Waltz", perhaps it seems even a little sacrilegious to talk in terms of exercise, but after all, why not? Almost every woman looks her best when she is moving to the lovely rhythmic beat of a waltz step. It seems to develop beauty, and that is our aim—the development of beauty, so the waltz step becomes grist to our mill!

I suppose there are some of you who don't know the technique of waltzing, and although I know they must be few and far between, here are directions.

The waltz is a three-beat step; Begin with the right foot, one whole beat forward. The second step is a short beat: the left foot slides forward to meet the right—balance is shifted to the left foot all on this short second beat, and the right foot again steps forward for the third beat. The step ends with the balance again on the right foot. The second step begins with the left, then right, then left again, and there you are—1-2-3, 1-2-3, 1-2-3—accent on the first step. Put on a waltz record. Hawaiian waltzes are slow and measured—excellent for teaching yourself time and rhythm.

Practice dipping on the different beats, or another variation, which raises the foot in a semi-circle on the first beat, holding for three counts, and then continuing the waltz step. The right foot on 1 is raised in front, swung all the way around to the back, 2-3, and on the first count of the second step, 1 again—the balance falls on it—2 is a short step, almost in place, and 3 is a step again with the right foot. Then 1, the left foot is raised, swung to the back, 2-3—1 step on the same left foot—2, a short step with the right, 3 the left again.

There you have a balance movement—rhythm and the working together of your mind and your foot. You have to think a little about all variations. By all means waltz your way to physical grace. It is a very pleasant way of acquiring very good habits.

"RELIGION AND HOPE"
Thursday
"Freedom Through Religion"

SCRIPTURE: Memory verse: "If, therefore, the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed" (John 8:36).

Read: John 21:15-22.

MEDITATION: Two things that threaten hope are environment and convention. We tend to become victims of things and people. "The danger of all human fellowship," said Professor Brown, "is that it will set limits to growth. We accept so easily the standards of our environment." Religion helps to free a man from the bondage of things and people by emphasizing the worth of the spirit and of each personality. If a man values his own spirit and individuality he will be free from the tyranny of things and conventions. He is free to strive and hope for his highest development. To use a phase of Goethe's, he may be "bound without" but he is "boundless within".

PRAYER: O Thou who dost give liberty to men, set us free we pray Thee from all bonds which enslave us, fetter us and prevent us from becoming ourselves. Strengthen us to walk in this new day without fear or any kind of bondage. Amen.

Who Want An Automobile That Looks Like Something—Acts Like Something—Is Something—Yet Costs Comparatively Little

IF I were a woman, I'd want a certain kind of automobile.

Of course, I'd want it to look like something. For you see, it will be almost a part of me, my life, my home.

And I wouldn't want to pay a fortune for it, because I know too well the value of the dollar.

But I would want far more.

I'd want nimbleness, easy steering, dashing pick-up, certain stopping to end traffic terrors.

I'd want the ability to twist easily into tight parking corners.

I'd want sure-footed, positive braking on those rainy, wet days when I drive the children to school.

And on certain afternoons, when I'm tired of dusting and dishes, I'd want my car to be a care-free vagabond with me, interested only in finding out what is on the other side of some distant, wind-swept hill.

Grilling of Knowlton, who is 34 years old and operates an electric and automobile battery establishment in Framingham, was interrupted long enough to let him have a little sleep and to take him to Concord district court for arraignment on a murder charge.

Rev. Scripture Speaks On Baptism

Mrs. Geo. B. and Mrs. M. J. Scripture sang "Why Not Say Yes Tonight" last evening at the special meetings being held at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle on Morris St. Evangelist Geo. Scripture gave a short talk on baptism after which the pastor, Rev. M. J. Scripture immersed Miss Ina E. Blevins and Miss Agnes Munday.

Rev. Geo. B. Scripture spoke on "The Enemy Said" using the text found in Exodus 15:9, "The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them."

The speaker showed how this was Satan's attitude toward mankind, how he was constantly persuing us and endeavoring to overcome us. But in Christ and thru Christ we can escape from his clutches and not only be safe now but for all eternity.

Concerning Women Only

You would not think of having a dress made without first consulting carefully and interestedly with your dressmaker. You would not think of buying a hat unless you tried it on and knew it would harmonize with the rest of your wardrobe. And yet all too often the same women who give exquisite attention to the harmony and style of their personal appearance, neglects these same points in their homes.

A beautiful interior, no matter how expensively furnished, can never be accomplished by desultory buying.

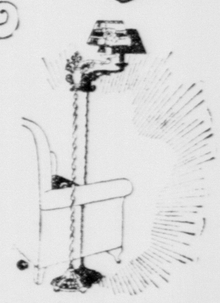

There is nothing so fatal to the harmony and charm of a room as furniture bought in a haphazard manner.

The first thing to consider in buying furniture is its place in your home. So far as possible, when buying an article buy it for some particular room and for some definite place in that room. Visualize it in that place and ask yourself if it will harmonize. Consider the color and line of the article in relation to your other furnishings and the character of your room. Remember, that no matter how beautiful an article may be in itself, unless it harmonizes it will not add personality to your room and give that necessary look of unity and repose.

Choosing just the correct piece is a matter for meticulous judgment. It requires careful planning, careful buying and unlimited good tastes to produce a beautiful home. Your furniture dealer should be consulted as frequently as your dressmaker if you desire your home to be as much an expression of your personality as are your clothes.

We have sponsored the comfort and beauty of so many homes that we have developed a reputation for reliability in all problems of home furnishings. Consult us as you would your dressmaker, and be assured we will assist you in every way possible.

Law To Prevent Child Marriage, Is Judge's Plan

By FRANCIS L. ARMSTRONG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Ill., April 5.—"Child" marriages would be banned by law in Illinois, according to a proposal of Judge William J. Lindsay, who heard thousands of divorce proceedings here.

Before his appointment to the criminal bench in superior court of Cook County, Judge Lindsay watched the stream of wrecked matrimony pouring through his court and concluded that youth is a serious handicap for any marriage.

Girls should be prohibited from marrying before they are 21 by the law Judge Lindsay suggests, and the boys would not be given the opportunity to assume the yoke before they are 25.

The present Illinois law sets 16 years as the girl's age and 18 as the boy's.

"Marriages under economic difficulties are often followed by divorce," Judge Lindsay pointed out.

Almost Children

"In my court I have watched hundreds of married couples who were almost children apply for separation, because of financial troubles.

"Unconsciously, the young wife feels a rankling resentment that her husband is unable to provide for her as she would like to live, and as she has been used to living in her parents' home.

"I don't mean that the young wives are intentionally disloyal, but when a girl can't have the kind of clothes her youth demands and can't dance and see movies as she wants, there is bound to be a feeling of dissatisfaction.

"Father has been working years and he has the earning power to satisfy the demands of his daughter's youth.

"But the young husband, if he marries at 18, is scarcely out of high school. There is no niche in the financial structure which will yield him enough to support a wife."

The age limit proposed by Judge Lindsay, he believes, would be the minimum at which marriages can be successful.

"If a boy goes to college, he is 22 when he graduates, at least. Three years is not a long time to allow him to become financially capable of caring for his wife.

"As for the girl, she is scarcely settled enough to know her own mind, or to be able to undergo the minor financial stringencies of matrimony until she is at least 18.

Judge Lindsay's View

Judge Lindsay does not maintain that youthful marriages are the result of "puppy love" as has been charged by many observers. He finds his sole fault with the uncertain economic structure of such unions.

Youth however, has an ardent supporter in its matrimonial ambitions, in Judge Joseph Sabath, another experienced divorce arbiter of the Chicago courts.

The boy who counts the days until he can marry at 18 with a salary of $20 a week finds Judge Sabath his friend.

"I married when I was 17 and never regretted it," Judge Sabath says. "I would do the same thing again. Parents coming into court seeking separation for their married 'children' have been told my views.

"There is a period in married life when the couple is becoming acclimated. They become used to married life and its obligations more easily if they are young."

Missing Baby, 2, Found In Midst Of Sheep Flock

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., April 5.—While hundreds of neighbors joined Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Coe of Warnick, near here, in their search for their missing two-year-old son, William, the child was found by a farmer in the center of a flock of sheep.

Although missing 24 hours, the child appeared none the worse for his experience. When found, he was hanging with one hand to the fleece of a large sheep. In his other hand he was carrying one shoe. He was chewing a stocking.

The child disappeared from the Coe farmyard at 3 yesterday afternoon. Sheriff Clyde Hardesty finally was appealed to and he asked officials in all eastern Ohio counties to search for the youngster.

William Irwin, a neighbor of the Coes, noticed that his sheep, huddled at a spot a mile and a half from the Coe home, were acting strangely. He investigated and found the child. It is believed probable that the baby slept with the sheep last night.

ARREST MAN ON LIQUOR CHARGE

James Maxedon, and O. A. Schwartz of Columbus, O. were arrested last night at the Maxedon home on the West Side by Officers Kennedy and Samuels and Constable A. S. Leslie.

A pint bottle of liquor was found on Maxedon and three bottles of home brew wrapped in paper in the back seat of the machine, which was the property of Schwartz.

This morning Maxedon was charged with violation of the Snyder act before Alderman O. H. P. Green by Chief of Police C. C. Horner and in default of $1,500 bail, was remanded to the county jail, to await a hearing.

Schwartz was fined $10 on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Senate Has Been Investigating Senators For 135 Years; Recent Investigations Cost $330,000

BY GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5. — The cost of investigating the elections of William S. Vare of Pennsylvania and Frank L. Smith of Illinois to the United States Senate has already mounted beyond the $180,000 mark.

It cost the United State around $150,000 to investigate the cases of four of the seven Senators now holding their seats after their right to do so had been questioned. The elections of Senators Earle B. Mayfield, of Texas, Arthur R. Gould, or Maine, Reed Smoot, of Utah, Thomas D. Schall, of Minnesota, Gerald P. Mye, of North Dakota, and Daniel F. Steck, of Iowa, were investigated.

An effort was made in 1917 to have the election of Senator George Moses, of New Hampshire, investigated, but it failed. The Nye case was quickly settled by a determination of the legality of his appointment by the governor to fill an unexpired term, so the cost was negligible. Smoot was investigated in 1903, to determine whether or not his connection with the Mormon church would disqualify him.

Mayfield's election was contested by his opponent, George E. B. Peddy, and it took $65,984.61 out of the contingent fund of the Senate to pay the costs of this contest, which was waged around Mayfield's connection with the Ku Klux Klan.

Gould was investigated because a judge in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, was reported to have said that Gould had participated in a bribery. It cost just $10,906.04 for him to defend himself against those charges, and a resolution has been introduced to reimburse him for that amount.

Magnus Johnson, former senator from Minnesota, contested the election of Schall to succeed him, and the costs of looking into that case amounted to $18,000, of which $15,500 went to Schall and $2,500 to Johnson for payment of their expenses.

Brookhart came from Iowa bearing credentials of election, but Steck contested his election, and won the right to the seat, at a cost of $55,029.69 to the government. But that did not keep Brookhart out of the Senate, for Iowa sent him to succeed Cummins after the next election.

Already $130,000 has been appropriated for the expenses of the committee headed by Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, to investigate the primaries by which Smith and Vare were nominated. The committee has also had to make smaller investigations of alleged corruption in the primaries in other states. In addition to this $130,000, it has cost the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections around $50,000 to investigate the contest brought by the Democratic nominee in Pennsylvania, William B. Wilson, against the election of Vare. The end of the primary investigation and the Vare election contest is not in sight.

But it is nothing new for the Senate to probe the qualifications, conduct, and elections of its members. It has been making such investigations for at least 135 years. Back in 1793, the Senate investigated the qualifications of Albert Gallatin, of Pennsylvania, for a seat in the Senate, and found that he was not entitled to it because he had not been a citizen for nine years.

In the 120 years from that time until 1913, when the Constitution was changed to require the election of United States Senators by popular vote, the Senate investigated the cases of 84 Senators who had been selected by the State Legislatures or appointed by governors to fill unexpired terms.

In the last 15 years, when Senators have been selected by popular vote the Senate has technically investigated nine cases, but two of these amounted to little, the Senators being seated promptly.

The case of William Lorimer, of Illinois was the most expensive and the most famous of the investigation cases preceding the adoption of the Seventeenth Amendment providing for the election of Senators by vote of the people. It was charged that Lorimer "bought up" the whole Illinois Legislature to obtain his election. Two investigations were made, costing $58,166.17. As this was back in 1911, when the dollar was worth about twice what it is today, the Lorimer investigation actually cost about as much as today's investigations of Smith and Vare.

The first famous investigation after the Seventeenth Amendment was that of Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan. It cost the Senate $31,323.19, and likewise cost some Senators their seats, for "the Newberry case" was a live political issue, and every Senator who voted to grant him a seat in the Senate was attacked for his vote. Newberry was not expelled, but he resigned. The cost would have been much higher had Newberry accepted reimbursement for the money he spent defending himself.

Many of the contested elections in the days following the Civil War resulted from the existence of rival Legislatures in Southern states, each of which would attempt to elect Senators. Then the Senate had to decide which was the properly constituted Legislature in the state concerned. Also, during Reconstruction days, several Senators were denied their seats because their state had not ratified the "reconstruction amendments" to the Constitution, and thus were not considered really back in the Union.

But Western states also had times in which there were rival Legislatures electing Senators. Such cases occurred in Idaho and Kansas.

Technicalities of election or appointment are most often the causes of senatorial investigations, and such technical legal cases rarely cost much. But charges of bribery, corruption and election irregularities have been occurring all along the line, and it costs more to investigate such cases. One man who was investigated on charges of bribery when he presented his credentials to the Senate now holds a place of honor in Statuary Hall in the Capitol—John J. Ingalls, of Kansas.

Another, the late William A. Clark, of Montana, who was investigated in 1899 on the charge of bribing the Legislature, has a Washington monument in the form of the new wing of the Corcoran Art Gallery containing the valuable collections he willed to Washington.

English Women Quit Studying To Be Doctors

International News Service Staff

LONDON, April 5. — English women are finding the medical profession so overcrowded that they are ceasing to train for medical degrees in the numbers they did a few years ago.

The Westminster hospital, one of London's largest free institutions, has taken a practical lead in the matter by refusing to train any more women medical students.

Charing Cross hospital, another of the large hospitals, is said to be considering taking similar steps, which would leave only three hospitals open to women.

Charlie Shultz Dead, Marines Mourn Friend

By JOHN GOETTE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PEKING, China, April 5. — Charlie Schultz is dead and a pall hangs over the American marines who were wont to get a glass of beer and a snack at Charlie's Place just outside the walled legation quarter. For 23 years this Chinese has been friend and purveyor to the countless thousands of American guards who have passed through the capital.

His Chinese name long since lost in the obscurity raised by the foreign title given him by his American friends, Charlie has not amassed a fortune from his little bar, but up to the day of his death he was visited by his older friends from the American legation guard.

His uninformed clients honored Charlie's square dealing and likeable personality and hardly a non-com but what looked him up immediately upon reassignment to duty in Peking. Many other bars have opened in opposition, but the Americans knew that they got more than just beer when they dropped in on the now departed Charlie.

OHIO SUPREME COURT SETS DATE TO HEAR APPEAL FOR REMUS

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., April 5. — The Ohio supreme court Wednesday set next Tuesday morning as the date for hearing of oral argument relative to the application for release, on bail, of George Remus, now confined in the State Hospital at Lima, Ohio.

The application was presented to the court by attorneys Charles H. Elston, of Cincinnati and B. C. Henderson, of Lima, counsel for Remus. They sought an earlier hearing but insisted on a full court hearing the argument.

They were informed that the earliest time at which the full court could be available for a hearing would be next Tuesday morning.

Good Card For Tuesday Night

Rio Meets Stewart; Conrad Fights Hanlon; Fink Vs. Elmo

TWO OTHER BOUTS TO BE STAGED

Save Tuesday night for the appeasement of your fight hungry appetite! Bill Jolly has arranged a card that will not only fetch favorites before the assembly but other boys who can sock and take it, and indications are that before the evening has been far spent, reputations will have been established and sullied.

For instance, Frankie Rio, the Cleveland Ghost, has been matched to fight Young Stewart, of Akron, who has been handing out hard jolts to featherweights throughout Ohio and who believes that he can step faster and box as good as the phantom.

Eddie Conrad, the fleet lightweight who whipped Jimmie Kirkpatrick, has been matched to fight Johnny Hanlon (who beat Kirkpatric while fighting under the name of Frankie Florenza, at Youngstown, in the semi-final.)

And to appease the fight fans, Elmo, the Mighty, will return to stage another thrilling chapter with Jack Fink, the Sphinx, of Eastbrook, and when these two light-heavyweight favorites climb into the ring, punches will travel in all directions.

Johnny Rini, of Cleveland, who is a good slugger, will meet another hard puncher in Young McManos, of Pittsburgh. Both have good reputations and in the curtain-raiser, "L u l u" Peret, hits like a mule's kick, meets Mickie George.

Risko Signed As "Pinch-Hitter" To Tom Heeney

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 5.—If illness prevents Tom Heeney from participating in his title fight with Gene Tunney, he will be replaced by Johnny Risko, the Cleveland baker boy, who is regarded as one of the leading contenders. A tentative agreement to this effect has been reached by Danny Dunn, Risko's manager, and Jess McMahon, chief lieutenant of Promoter Tex Rickard.

Dunn made it clear, however, that Risko's "pinch-hitter" role would not prevent him from signing for other matches in the meantime.

Here And There In Sports' Land

By ED. FRITZ

Travia Waner and Parker Brewer, Pirate recruits, have been sent to Salisbury.

When Elmo The Mighty and Jack Fink clash Tuesday night they will be welcomed back to the ring by a big mob of fans. Both are favorite light-heavyweights here. There is considerable rivalry between the punchers.

Bobby Cruickshank led at the half way mark with a card of 142 in the Richmond open golf tourney at Richmond yesterday.

Frankie Rio will step against Young Stewart. Last week Frankie, a popular fighter here, kayoed Young Johnny O'Neil. According to information from Ohio he will experience lots of trouble with Stewart. The reason why Frankie has been winning is because he not only can box but possesses a punch, something most boxers lack.

Johnny Weismuller, the "human fish", retained the 100-yard free style indoor swimming title by defeating Walter Laufer at Chicago.

Johnny Hanlon has abandoned the name of Frankie Florenza and will clash with Eddie Connery. Eddie says he will trim Hanlon for Jimmie Kirkpatrick of Ellwood. Hanlon gave Jimmie a real lacing at Youngstown and the Cleveland boy has stated: "Let Hanlon to me." That sounds very much like Eddie is ready to uphold local lads.

The vet, Augie Kieckhefer, defeated Art Thurnblad of Chicago in that city, 40 to 43 in a block of three cushion billiards that went 62 innings.

Careless and superfine golf were combined in the play at Pinehurst. Miss Glenna Collett lost to Mrs. O. S. Hill in a great match and Maureen Orcutt, who grew careless, lost to Virginia Van Wie.

Lulu, yes, that is Peret's name, but do not think there is anything feminine about him. He stands up and punches out like a heavyweight heman. He is scheduled to battle a tough, Mickie George, and with Johnny Rini opposing Young Manos the card Tuesday night should be a regular lullapalooza.

President Coolidge has accepted an invitation to toss out the first baseball when Washington and Boston clash at Washington April 10.

Sport Ritticisms

By BILL RITT

No one seems to realize what a sacrifice it is for Gene Tunney to train and fight Tom Heeney. Think how it will cut into his reading!

* * *

How painful it must be to give up one's browsing among the classics in order to push and pummel a friendly foreigner to earn a vulgar half million dollar check.

* * *

Libraries mean little to Heeney unless he has to fight Gene in one. The only books that give Honest Tom a big kick are the kind you get at the bank.

* * *

But then, you know the old proverb: He who would reap his harvest in cauliflower cannot keep his mind on the tender lily and the blooming rose.

* * *

Heeney now says that he was afraid to come to America. After the big fight he may realize he was right.

* * *

They say Heeney has a lot of personality. But that won't stop Tunney. It takes a punch in the nose.

Players Of 'Eighties' Helped To Pave Way For Baseball, Our National Game

By ED. FRITZ

Time and tide wait on no person. The sun bursts forth with radiant beauty each day. Darkness comes and lulls the tired to sleep. Men stagger through life, some prosperous, others slapped by the cruel hand of adversity. Laughter makes the world more cheerful, but the sphere hurtles around, unmindful of grief when someone lurches from Wealth avenue into Poverty street.

But memory, it seldom disappears, unless one is unfortunate and in the minds of many of the older generation hereabouts there is a fondness for achievements of baseball players who occupied the limelight in the never-to-beforgotten 80's, and a wholesome respect for the men who made it possible for the stars of today, Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, the Waners, Cuylers to draw big salaries and the public's good opinion.

When the boys of the 80's played there were baseball fields, but not the up-to-date "plants" of today. They had equipment, yes, but not the equipment of 1928. But they played with zeal, earnestness and fought to win and helped to make baseball the national pastime, America's leading sport. And it is obvious that the members of the Neshannocks had plenty to do with the laying of the foundation for baseball.

Only a few days ago Fred Rentz returned from the South and with him he brought a scrap book, a plain Hadley's language book, in which are pasted clippings of baseball accounts, the book being the property of Bert L. Garvin of Fort Lauderdale. In the book are accounts of baseball games, never more to be played, and the names of players—some of whom have been retired by the Umpire-in-Chief.

In those days the newspapers did not provide as much space for baseball games as they do today, as the game then was in its infancy, but due to the players and the appreciative enthusiasts the national game now is given all possible space and seldom can one find a nook in any part of the United States, at any time of the day or evening, where some fan is not finding wholesome brain food in baseball stories.

Picking up the book and turning at random to a page, the writer discovers where Youngstown lost to New Castle, 20 to 1, on a cold, damp and dreary day. Alexander started to pitch against Charlie Powers and New Castle drove him from the mound. McAleer relieves him. Garvin, a left fielder, had three runs, three hits and three assists, and Winternitz caught Powers, who fanned 15. In that game Link Lowe, in center, had three hits and two runs, while Ellis, Crill and Simpson shone. In that game Rogan played third and Moore covered right field.

When New Castle defeated Wheeling, 4 to 3, the batting order was: DuShane, ss.; Simpson, 1b.; Winternitz, c.; Powers, cf.; Lowe, 3b; Emery, p.; Sanford, 2b; and Robinson, rf. Emery fanned 10 and Easton struck out eight, and a note says that "Winternitz is catching splendidly" and Johnny Jenness is reported to have "accomplished the almost impossible task of umpiring in a satisfactory manner to both clubs". Clashing with Alliance, the Neshannocks, with Powers pitching and Winternitz catching, lost 8 to 4, and the reporter at Alliance in reporting the game to a New Castle paper says: "It is not often the members of the Neshannocks blame defeat on the umpire, but that Evans of Alliance helped his club win yesterday's game, there can be no doubt. Everybody says he did, and what everybody says must be true". A charge of rank decisions is made.

Poor Mr. Evans. Little did he dream then that the umpires of today would be similarly charged. Sometimes we have been prone to believe that in a great many contests the one person who is correct is he in authority, and that the fan, loyal to the favored, is apt to watch the contest, whatever sport it may be, through spectacles with only one lens.

And next came the Eries. They lost, 12 to 5. Robison played right. Wahley covered center and the Nocks won easily. In another game with Alliance, in their own ball yard, Emery had two wild pitches but gave only six hits and fanned 11, while Kelly struck out nine, was touched up for nine safe blows and Alliance made 12 errors. Garvin caught Emery and made a fine job of it, the clipping states.

But what about Sewickley? New Castle won, 9 to 7, in the last half of the ninth—a garrison finish. Walter Lindsay caught Powers and he certainly caught a good game. Nellis played second and Stritmater covered third. In Sewickley line-up were Whitesill, lf; McShan'g 3b; Quinn, c; Davis, 2b; Warden, rf; Hutchinson, cf; Porter, ss; Osborne, lf, and Robb, pitcher, and it may be said they came mostly from the Alleghenies.

Some of the other scores contained in the book are: New Castle 20, Beaver Falls 1. In this game Whaley played left and Sanford center, while Lowe still covered third and Beals pitched for Beaver Falls. Wooster, O., lost, 9 to 7, to the Nocks and later the Duquesnes won from the Neshannocks, 11 to 4. Richardson played left for the Dukes, Tener pitched and Milligan caught. Alliance was beaten, 5 to 3, and in this game Emery was switched to second. Kelly hurled for Alliance and Davis was behind the bat.

The Nocks beat Erie, 5 to 1. Butler was bettered, 9 to 3, and according to footnotes "John Robison is New Castle's quietest player". The appendage says Lowe is hitting good and a catch by DuShane was applauded. The Nocks dropped one to Alliance, 5 to 4, but Wooster fell before the Nocks, 9 to 3.

Coming across another clipping, we find new faces in the Neshannock line-up. McAleer at third, Alexander pitching, Sutherland in left, Franklin catcher and right, Westhoven at first, Ellis covering second, Coony alternating with Franklin and McCullough sending them over the pan. This team beat Steubenville, 8 to 6, the Nocks having five earned runs and Steubenville 2. Alexander fanned eight and gave 10 hits. He outpitched Miller.

In another game is found the name of Benny Hover, catcher, Cody, first; Lohr, pitcher, and Eckart at second, and on a team that won from "Our Boys" of Pittsburgh. According to the account the "Our Boys" couldn't do a thing with "Jap" Lohr and little Hoover. The score was 15 to 3. In still further accounts are the names of players, some of whom are still here, now in the role of fans and boosters, and some who have traveled for the last time to the home plate.

Yes, the boys of 80, like those of the seventies, who played great baseball, helped to make baseball the wonderful game it is today. It truly is an American institution. One could no better get along without his rolls and coffee than his baseball news. And the boys whose names have been published help lay the foundation for this desired state of affairs which slowly but surely is becoming an international sport.

Heydler Gives Out Instructions Today To League Umpires

Disputes Are Expected To Show Dercease Under New Orders Made By Heydler

Tells Umpires To "Keep Keep Your Temper"; New Ruling On Home Runs

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 5.—Disputes concerning the interpretation of baseball rules by National League umpires are expected to be decreased this season by the annual instructions sent out today by President John A. Heydler to his staff of fourteen umpires. President Heydler laid down concise and clear interpretations of points which puzzled some of his arbiters last season.

One ruling probably will increase the number of home runs in the senior circuit this season. President Heydler told his umpires that a ball hit into any stand or over any inside fence at least 250 feet from the home plate should be called fair or foul according to where it passes from the actual playing field. The front of the stand or the inside fence, instead of the spot where the ball strikes the stand, will guide the umpire in determining whether the hit is fair or foul.

This means that hits which curve into foul territory and strike some visible object will be legitimate homers provided they are fair hit when they pass the actual playing field. Sluggers such as Chick Hafy of the St. Louis Cardinals, whose hits travel close to the foul line and hook or slice like golf drives, will benefit by the ruling.

Keep Your Temper

A ball hit outside the grounds is to be judged from the point where it disappears from the umpire's view.

President Heydler enjoined his umpires to "keep their eyes on the ball," warned them not to call plays too quickly, and advised them to study the rules daily. Other instructions were:

"Do not turn away too fast when a fielder is throwing to complete a play."

"Watch out for those dropped balls after you have called a man out."

"If you are sure you got the play correctly, do not be stampeded by the appeals of players to ask the other umpire for his decision on the play."

"Keep your temper. Be courteous, but firm."

President Heydler ruled that when a scoring runner passed the catcher but fails to touch the plate, the catcher or fielder does not need to chase the runner to the bench. The runner should be declared out on appeal by the fielder.

One new ruling is: there is a runner on first base and three balls have been called on the batsman. The runner starts to steal on the next pitch, which is called a ball, and he overslides second base. If the catcher's throw gets him before he gets back to the bag, he is out.

If ropes are stretched around the field to hold back an overflow crowd, a fielder can not jump over or climb under the ropes to catch the ball. He may reach over the ropes, however, similarly, a catcher or fielder can jump into the stand or a box to catch a foul ball.

Detroit's Hopes

By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1928, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

Second from the top of the Tigers' player roster for 1928 is the name Carroll, Owen T. Third from the bottom of the list is the name Whitehill, Earl O. These two are as far apart in manner of delivery as they are on the roster, for Whitehill is a left-hander, while Carroll throws in the orthodox manner. But they are alike in two things: one, that on them will rest about half the burden of pitching for Detroit during the coming season, and, two, because they are both terrible batters. With Sam Gibson and Ken Holloway, they will carry the hopes of Flivver City fans in the 1928 pennant race, and there are certain good reasons why Manager Moriarty can look with optimism on the days between April 11 and September 30.

Owen Carroll of Newark, N. J., who weights 165 and bats .174, is well remembered for his sensational work with Holy Cross, where he won 48 games out of 50. He joined Detroit in the summer of 1925, but got off to a disastrous start and was sent to Toronto, where he pitched fine ball in 1926. His 1927 record of 10 wins and six defeats gives hope for an even better season this year.

Earl Whitehill of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who weighs 165 and bats .205, became a regular with Detroit in 1924 and won 17 games while losing nine. The next year he made it "1-11"; in 1926, won 16 and lost 13; and last season recorded 16 victories and 14 defeats. He has, you see, yet to go below the .500 mark, and, as he is only 28 years old, there is no reason why he should not have many more winning seasons ahead of him.

Father—"Are you in love with my daughter or her riches?"

Student—"Sir, I am an amateur athlete and I do not take part in any event for money."

Blindfolded . . . in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, Princess Paul Chavchavadze selects OLD GOLD

"I was much intrigued by the invitation to make a blindfold test of your leading brands of American cigarettes, to see how they compared with each other and with those I had smoked abroad. Could one really taste the difference? I wondered.

"But when I was handed these cigarettes, one by one, I realized at once that there was a difference and that the test was conclusive. One cigarette was so much more appealing, so much more delicate in flavor. Oh, and so much smoother!

"When the test was over and I was told that the cigarette of my choice was OLD GOLD I understood at once why this cigarette is so popular among my American friends."

PRINCESS PAUL CHAVCHAVADZE, Sister of Mrs. Wm. B. Leeds

How Test Was Made

Subject was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette. The Princess was entirely unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the four cigarettes, the Princess was asked to designate by number her choice. Without hesitation she replied, "No. 3"... which was OLD GOLD.

SMOOTHER AND BETTER — NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

Shows Need For Rural Libraries

Miss Sterling Approves Of Book Truck For Residents Of County

What a traveling library, with New Castle as its base, could do for the rural population of Lawrence county was explained to the News this morning by Miss Alice M. Sterling, librarian of the New Castle public library.

"Lawrence county is a peculiarly fortunate place in which to develop a traveling library, because of the large mileage of improved roads," comments Miss Sterling. "And the idea is a good one. Think of the people who could be reached who now do not have the advantages of a library!

"The idea is very simple. A light truck is fitted up with shelving on the sides, containing a large selection of books suitable for people of all ages. For father will ask for a book on tractors, grandmother speaks for something 'improving', mother wants a book on poultry raising, the grown up daughter wants a love story.

"The book truck idea has helped to solve the problem of reaching remote communities with library service. But there are many people here in Lawrence county who do not have public library service.

"Everything shows that the time for library extension is at hand. The inequality of library opportunity between city and country is too undemocratic to continue. Something must be done, and the library truck is the easiest remedy."

SORDS POINTS

Cuyler Gives Cubs Hitting Complex

By JACK SORDS

Kiki Cuyler in the unie of a Chicago Cub! No wonder Windy City fans can't wait until the season starts.

It isn't Cuyler's record with his old club, the Pittsburgh Pirates, that has Chicago all het up for a glimpse of their new player, but the town has gone keen on Kiki because of his banging the ball in great style during spring training.

Cuyler completes a Ruth-Gehrig combination for Chicago—on a reduced scale. Teamed with the slugging Hack Wilson it looks as though Chicago fans will see a summer's struggle for bat supremacy between the two.

National league pitchers are going to have a tough time of it keeping outfield off the bases this season. That situation should strengthen the Cubs' standing materially.

Besides Cuyler and Wilson there is Riggs Stephenson, galloping around and afflicted with the habit of hitting around a hefty .340.

Yes, sir, speaking of outfields, it looks like a big year for the Bruin people, and if it is, Chicago fans will be happy and forget their scowls at the loss of Sparky Adams, who was traded to the Pirates for Cuyler.

That many million men can't be wrong

FIGURES show that more Prince Albert is smoked by experienced jimmy-pipers than any other brand. You might give any of a dozen reasons why they bought their first tin of P. A. But their tenth and their hundredth . . . only demonstrated quality can account for that! Wouldn't you say so?

The very fragrance of P. A. is an indication of the quality-taste still to come. The first fire-up makes good on the aromatic promise. Cool as a steeple-jack doing his stuff. Sweet as getting back to earth again safely. Mild and mellow and long-burning. Some tobacco, Men, and no mistake!

If you don't know the joys of a pipe packed with P. A., get busy and make up for lost time. No matter what your present set-up may be, try Prince Albert. It is not an experiment, but an experience — a little journey into a land of pip[illegible] that you'll take many times every day.

The revenue stamp tells you—TWO full ounces in every tin.

PRINCE ALBERT

JOHN BULL GETS TITLE CHANCE AFTER 29 YEARS

Twenty-nine years ago Bob Fitzsimmons, left, lost his title to Jim Jeffries and the world's heavyweight championship passed from the British empire to United States where it has remained since. Bob was an Australian. Now comes Tom Heeney, of New Zealand, right, another Britisher from the same corner of the world, and Great Britain's first real knight of the padded fist since 1899, who will try to wrest the lost laurels away from Uncle Sam.

tornado hit four miles south of the city. The injured including Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton and seven Mexican laborers. Ten houses were demolished and a number of roofs were blown off in Santa Ana.

Meager reports from Bangs, Brown county, stated houses there were destroyed and others partially wrecked. No loss of life was reported.

A dozen houses were smashed to pieces by a tornado that struck Gouldbusk, in the southern part of Coleman county. The business section escaped damage, however, according to reports.

The Red Cross chapter of Coleman, Texas, today took charge of the caring for homeless persons whose homes were wrecked in the twister in Coleman county.

The twister in the eastern part of the country cut a 15 mile swath. The national guard was pressed into service to provide cots and medical aid to the homeless and injured and sheriff's forces left to round up stricken persons and render aid.

The Santa Ana area suffered the greatest damage.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 5.—Stock prices moved upward brilliantly at the beginning of trading today, under the lead of the rails, motors and specialties. Buying of the rails was in line with market forecasts of an agreement among the railroad heads, at their meeting here today, in the important matter of Eastern trunk line consolidations. Bullish forces in the motor and specialty stocks carried all before them as General Motors, Timken, Continental Can and other well known stocks advanced 1 to 4 points in active trading. The airplane stocks also continued to soar.

Aggressive leadership in the advance was again furnished by General Motors, which raced up 3 points to 189 in heavy trading in the first half-hour. Market rumors outlined a new two-for-one split up of the stock and a distribution among stockholders of the unissued but authorized stock. Of the 30,000,000 shares authorized, only 17,400,000 shares are at present outstanding leaving a considerable margin for stock dividends. Nash Motor rose in active trading to 91½, for a new 2½ point gain, and good demand was in evidence for Chrysler, Hudson and Studebaker.

Sinclair's Fortune Has Dwindled Due To Many Court Actions

Estimate Harry F. Sinclair Has Expended Many Millions In Court Fees

Five Years In Courtroom Has Cost Oil Magnate Pretty Sum; Not Through Yet

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 5.—What price prosecution?

A much hampered inquiry today developed that Harry F. Sinclair's part in the oil scandals of the Harding administration has cost him some exceedingly important money during the past five years.

Since the winter of 1923, when the Senate first thrust an inquisitive nose into the ways and means by which he acquired a lease on the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve, up to the present moment, when he is about to stand trial for criminal conspiracy against the government in connection therewith, Sinclair has been divorced from a steady stream of money that would make a number of readers independently wealthy for life.

The oil man is convinced he is being "persecuted". He thinks that federal agents have been constantly on his trail, watching his every movement since 1923. Well he might, if his friends are to be believed. They estimate that five years ago his fortune was in excess of a hundred million dollars—some placed it as high as $120,000,000.

Fortune Dwindles

Today the estimate ranges from a maximum of $75,000,000 to a minimum of $50,000,000. The balance, it is claimed, has gone in an effort to beat the charge that he bribed Former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall to give him a fraudulent lease on Teapot Dome, and in business reverses incident thereto.

Figures of this nature are almost impossible of verification, but it is known that Sinclair lost quite a few millions alone when the supreme court voided his lease on the oil reserve, not only taking from him the handsome profits, but also a thousand-mile pipe line from Wyoming to the Pacific coast and all of the storage tanks at the delivery end. Everyone concerned is reluctant to discuss dollars and cents in connection with Sinclair's financial outlay as a result of his tribulations, but enough was gleaned to indicate tremendous expenditures.

Notables Represent Sinclair

During the constant court litigations arising from the oil scandal the oil man has been represented by such men as Martin W. Littleton of New York, who made his mark in the Thaw-White murder case; George Hoover of Washington, who just won a million dollar will case; Daniel Thew Wright, who as justice of the D. S. supreme court, presided over the famous Stove case that nearly resulted in the jailing of the late Sam Gompers and other American Federation of Labor leaders; Reginald Ragland and T. Stanford, experts on oil and land laws, and half a dozen others. All of these are reputed to have received small fortunes in fees from their client.

Then comes the matter of the hiring of the Burns detective agency to shadow the jury that sat in the first trial of Sinclair and Fall last October. This business resulted in a mistrial and gained Sinclair a six month sentence. It also cost him plenty of money. Sixteen agents were on the job and their expense accounts, as produced in court, were highly liberal. The contempt trial lasted two months and a half, and Sinclair footed the bill for about 75 defense witnesses during that period.

Maintains Apartment

Meanwhile, Sinclair has been maintaining a Washington establishment in true millionaire style. During the weeks of the original trial he and his menage held forth at the Mayflower Hotel. For that short time the bill was slightly in excess of $7,000.

Then, when the contempt trial started, he moved to the Carlton Hotel. For himself he is maintaining a suite that consists of four "master bedrooms", a huge dining room, a living room and a kitchen. His own cook prepares all meals and his own man serves them. This suite is a bargain at $150 a day.

In addition there are other rooms reserved for members of his party. At times these run as high as 15.

The report he has taken a $1,000-a-month apartment in the Hay-Adams House, brand new, gilt-edged apartment mansion overlooking the White House, is erroneous. It took a day, however, to confirm the falsity of the report, so closely are Sinclair's affairs guarded in Washington.

Closely Guarded

Martin W. Littleton, chief of the oil man's counsel, is stopping at the Mayflower with his wife and daughter. They have seven rooms. The reason for this is that the seventh room is a sitting room in which the defense counsel confer. The other six rooms serve to make sure that no inquisitive government agent can get close enough to listen in.

Everyone is regarded with suspicion around the Sinclair headquarters. The most innocent act on the part of a disinterested person several times recently has resulted in a thorough investigation of that person that brought to light all the skeletons in his family closet.

On the dining room wall of the Sinclair suite is a framed sign, hung facetiously by H. Mason Day, the oil man's chief lieutenant, which reads: "This is no hotel lobby; do not spit on the floor."

The motto of the establishment, however, seems to be: "Trust no one. He may have a government badge in his pocket."

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

That automobile of yours has a number of things in it that are highly important. The engine, the springs, the frame, and so on, but there is one important part of your car that is probably made here in New Castle the bushings.

Just looking at a bushing as it lays on a garage bench, or in a hardware store, it seems a trifling sort of thing. Just a hollow tubular piece of metal, something like a short length of pipe. But if you want some idea of how important bushings are when they are manufactured in large quantites, take a trip through the Johnson Bronze plant.

Had the pleasure of roaming through it yesterday with Lou Sandler, the plant manager, and after going through it, I had a new idea of just how important this plant is to the city of New Castle.

First of all, there are 500 men and women employed down there. Second, the plant has grown until it spreads out over a surprisingly large area, and third, the amount of machinery used almost takes one's breath away.

Stepping into one of the shops is like stepping into an enormous beehive. A whine of belts, and a roar of motors, the staccato of presses pounding out bushings from sheet metal, the clank, clank, clank, as they drop into waiting receivers, and a steady surging roar, like the pounding of the surf on a rocky coast, and with it all a young army of men and women, turning out a product without which your automobile would be useless.

Some of the bushings are tiny little affairs, some of them are huge things, and all of them get as much care as though they were hair springs for watches. And, ladies and gentlemen, when they are done, they have the shine and the polish of a ladies jewel box. A polish so high that simple babbit metal looks like nickle or silver.

I can remember, and so can you, perhaps, when the old plant was known as the American Car and Ship Hardware Company. A little dinky bit of a plant set away back from Mill street, which worked in a rather desultory manner. Today it is a giant plant, owned, controlled and operated by New Castle men and women, with a hard hitting fighter at the head of it, P. J. Flaherty. "Peejay" knows little but hard work. He grew up on it, he thrives on it, and that dauntless courage of his that has carried the plant up from a bit of a thing has caught the fancy of the workers down there and everybody seems to be in the collar, pulling the load.

One young old timer in the plant is Bud Rustler. Bud has been in the plant since Roosevelt was president, according to the records, but judging from his age, he must have gone in when he was just a kid. Talking to him must be done in snatches, for he has too much to do to stand around.

Everybody seems to know his job. Bill McNeil handles a machine that carves the bushing down to just the right size. Over in the foundry, Sam Palus has charge of the moulders, and big Ed Davenport runs the electric department. Saw one lad working there who, a few weeks ago, I cheered on to victory down in the Pitt Stadium basketball court, Tony Ostrowsky. Its vacation time and the football and basketball flash is making some extra money.

One press intrigues a visitor. This piece of machinery deals with one thousands of inches. It must make the bushings within 4-1000 of an inch perfect, and if you want to get some idea how close to perfect that is, divide an inch into one thousand parts.

Perhaps a few figures may interest you. In one month, the plant turned 291,000 halves, that is nearly 150,000 complete bushings. Each bushing is divided into halves in order that they may be applied to the working parts of the automobile. That's a lot of bushings, but then, there are a lot of automobiles in America.

It's an amazing plant, one that is a credit to New Castle. The worst luck I could wish the plant is that it has to erect as many more buildings to take care of the business it will get. Any plant that employs such a number of people, and turns out a product of such quality as the Johnson Bronze Company, deserves the good will of the city fortunate enough to call the plant its own.

Senate Farm Bloc Seeking Enactment Of Relief Measure

Start Drive For Enactment Of Compromise McNary-Haugen Measure Within Week

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Senate farm bloc buckled down today to a drive for enactment of the compromise McNary-Haugen farm relief bill within the next week.

The bloc leaders were greatly encouraged by the action of corn belt farmers in unanimously endorsing the new bill at their Des Moines conference. The corn belt men, representing twenty-three groups of farm organization, "cordially approved" the bill.

A movement meanwhile was started in the House to get the farm measure considered in the lower branch of Congress before action is taken on the flood control bill. The farm bloc spokesmen, if defeated in this effort will try to have their measure acted upon after flood control.

The new bill, after being sidetracked in the Senate for two days for an appropriation bill, will be debated the rest of this week, its sponsors were hopeful of getting a final vote by next Tuesday or Wednesday. This would enable the House to pass upon it before the end of April, allowing a full month for presidential action and an effort to reenact it over a veto if it met White House disapproval.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 5.—Governor Alfred E. Smith's name will be formally presented to the nation as a Democratic candidate for the presidential nomination at a meeting of the Democratic State committee in New York on April 17, under plans which had been perfected today.

This procedure was decided upon at a conference behind closed doors in the executive chamber of the governor. Judge George Olvany, leader of Tammany hall, and Lieutenant Governor Edwin Corning, chairman of the Democratic State committee.

As a result of the executive chamber conference, United States Senator Royal S. Copeland is slated for renomination, it was learned today on high authority.

Democratic Plan Means Big Deficit

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The $300,000,000 tax reduction proposed by Democrats in Congress yesterday would mean a treasury deficit of $100,000,000 in 1929, acting Secretary of the Treasury Mills declared today.

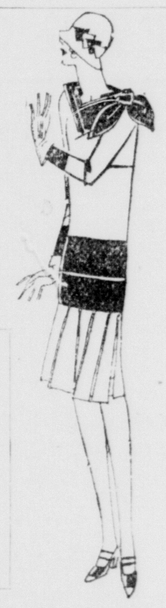

Mills declared the treasury estimates of anticipated revenue have not been shown to be inaccurate, and "no serious proposal of a $300,000,000 reduction should be made until some evidence is produced" that the estimates are not accurate.

Ambridge Seeks New Post Office

By GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of the News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—A delegation of Ambridge citizens, headed by C. Roy Kerr, secretary of the Ambridge Board of Trade, appeared before the joint committee of postoffice and treasury officials and urged the erection of a new postoffice building at Ambridge.

The delegation was taken to the treasury department, where the conference was held, by Congressman J. Howard Swick of Beaver Falls, who last December introduced a bill in the house of representatives providing for the construction of a new building at Ambridge at a cost not to exceed $150,000.

It is unlikely that Ambridge will be included in the list of cities which will be submitted to congress within the next several days. This list includes cities which are to receive new buildings or extensions during the next fiscal year.

The government owns neither site nor building in Ambridge, the delegation pointed out, and submitted facts and figures showing the rapid growth of the city and the postal receipts of the office within the last ten years.

While there is little hope that Ambridge will get a place in the second list, members of the delegation were of the opinion that if they presented their request early enough they would be able to have the Ambridge project included in the third list of projects.
